The happiness of the leader lies in the happiness of his people, his welfare in their welfare. He will only consider those things desirable which are liked by his people and not which he likes individually.

- Arya Chanakya

BCS is a mission. It is a journey, initiated by MIT School of Government. Over the last decade we have been endeavouring to motivate youth to uplift the existing image of Indian politics, by bringing in cleaner, better informed and healthier practices into the system. It is indeed gratifying to see that our efforts have borne fruit and several of our alumni are working both at the grassroots and higher levels of politics in India and remain committed to the cause of creating a better India!

ESTEEMED SPEAKERS OF 9th BHARATIYA CHHATRA SANSAD 2019

Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is a platform created for the student union leaders and also other politically active student leaders of India to encourage them to voice their opinions and to provide them with an opportunity to listen to the experts on various issues facing the nation. This mission is supported by Legislative Assemblies, Parliament Affairs Ministries and Youth Ministries of various State Governments.

Disclaimer: Indian Student Parliament (Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad) is an independent, apolitical platform which is not in any way affiliated to any national or regional political party or media house in India or overseas.

IMPORTANT NOTE

Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is an apolitical platform on which student leaders from all ideologies - political, religious, sectarian or otherwise - assemble to voice their opinions. The effort is to sensitize the youth about the ideals of democracy by exposing them to varied views and opinions. The objective is also to sensitize them towards political processes with a view to bringing them into the political mainstream. The Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad also aims to provide a feedback to the government in order to help it formulate policies for the youth and other sectors, by ascertaining the pulse of the people through the medium of youth.

Thus, Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is the perfect reflection of democracy in full function, irrespective of political, religious, sectarian or any other ideologies.

MIT School of Government, (MIT-SOG) Pune, was founded in 2005. It is the first of its kind to be set up in not only India but also Asia that imparts leadership training to educated youth of India desirous of making a career in Politics and Government. In last 14 years of successful operations we having trained hundreds of youth are proud to see many of our alumni holding important positions in public life. When we at MIT-SOG grow from strength to strength, we know that our political system too benefits, by getting an excellent pool of talent.

We expanded the canvas of MIT School of Government in 2011, by creating a separate platform and brought out classroom training to the thousands of common youth through the innovative platform, Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. BCS represents a non-partisan and independent platform. Through its annual national conclave, the platform is transforming the outlook of thousands of youth and reaffirming their respect for politics, political leaders, democracy and its institutions.

VISION

To create most ethical, spirited and competent public leadership in the country, which will shape our policies, make our democracy vibrant and bridge the chasm between the way we are being governed today and the way we want to be governed.

MISSION

To initiate the very spirit of student politics in the youth of today and inculcate public spirited and socially sensitive values right during their formative years. We aim to raise the extent of sensitivity, awareness, involvement, responsiveness, access and say of youth in political and democratic processes so that a healthy democratic system is evolved. Such a system will then produce competent public leaders and policy makers, from the grassroots and from all walks of life.

Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (Indian Student Parliament) – A Seed Thought

“The time is more relevant than ever for the educated youth to come forward to shoulder the responsibility of leadership in public life. Unfortunately, majority of them still shy away from politics. We have to change the picture.”

Rahul V. Karad

Founder Convener,

Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (Indian Student Parliament)

MIT School of Government (MIT-SOG) Pune, was launched in the year 2005 and even after fourteen years, it is the only institute in India and Asia of its kind, imparting a two year, full time, Masters Program in Political Leadership & Government (MPG). I feel glad to state that the unique professional program has proved to be an initiator of fresh thinking among the youth. We expanded the canvas of the School in 2011, and brought out classroom training to the thousands of common youth through Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad(BCS).

In the last 14 years, the platform has captured the imagination and conscience of thousands of spirited youth and has joined them together for a singular purpose to strengthen the foundations of Indian democracy. Every year almost 12,000 politically and socially active students from about 450 universities across all states of India, participate in the flagship annual national conclave of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad after a rigorous selection process adopted by the colleges independently. With our consistent efforts we have been able to inspire Student Chapters on Bhartiya Chhatra Sansad in the states of Gujarat, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar, Maharashtra, Haryana and even Jammu & Kashmir.

Over the decade, BCS's reach has expanded and we feel gratified that with our pursuance, continued efforts and inputs, the Lok Sabha conducted the National Conference of Women Legislators, in 2017. This subsequently led to the creation of an even bigger platform in 2018- the National Women's Parliament. This event was held in association with the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly & Government of Andhra Pradesh in Amravati, Andhra Pradesh.

BCS also led us to realize that students need to be guided by strong teachers, which led to the initiation of the National Teachers Congress. Two national-level conclaves of NTC have been conducted successfully, connecting 3000+ teachers and 10000+ students from all over India. The natural progression has been to take the cause of Higher Education to global platforms which we aim to do through the International Congress of Indian Higher Educators in 2022.

The Kerala Legislative Assemble too drew inspiration from BCS and as part of its celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of the Kerala Legislative Assembly, organized the Festival on Democracy, with the National Students Parliament which was held in collaboration with MIT-SOG & BCS and became the highlight of the event.

It gives me immense satisfaction to see that the Government of India has taken cognizance of the seriousness of this cause and recently conducted the Youth Parliament. Therefore, I would say that BCS has established its credibility in the vastness of India. Many important democratic organizations of global governance have termed BCS as an exceptional model for the entire world. To mark the beginning of a new decade, the 10th edition of BCS shall now be held the national capital of New Delhi in 2020.

MESSAGE

CHAIRMAN

Today, India is on the threshold of being a developed economy. Its strength lies in its young population, which is certainly enviable for other countries. This is the right opportunity to guide and motivate these youngsters to utilize their sparkling energy for the noble cause of nation building. The best way to develop and nurture this abundant talent of our nation is to concentrate our efforts on the student leaders who would be shouldering the responsibilities of making a stronger India. To approach all the youth in our country might be tedious but bringing all the youth leaders on a common platform for deliberations and dialogue is possible.

The Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (Indian Student Parliament), has sown the seeds of motivation, action and commitment of youth towards positive action. The importance of this Parliament lies in the fact that we lack the leaders with vision and leaders who are capable of taking bold decisions. Several times, leaders dither when it comes to taking decisions, either because of their ignorance of the issues or because of their myopic vision. This problem could be rectified by enabling the present student leaders for rightful electoral politics as the present electoral politics is the root cause of several evils in public life. The corrupt electoral politics will never produce ethical leaders committed to clean and healthy politics. The Chhatra Sansad can pave the way for this innovative undertaking and create leaders with oozing energy and dynamism. I wish that Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad will generate new ripples of enthusiasm and enlightenment in the nation.

T. N. Seshan

Former Chief Election Commissioner of India

PRESIDENT

We are proudly witnessing the great strides made by the Indian youth in several spheres of activities. But the youth has been shying away from socio-political responsibilities today. The challenge is to get the youth involved in building the future India, which is their India, which will script their own future.

In this context, I consider the success of the Indian Student Parliament (Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad) as an important milestone in today's socio-political environment of India. Indeed, the MIT School of Government has done remarkably well by drawing an overwhelming response from the student community by holding the first ever Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad in Pune. The event drew a wide appreciation from the Indian youth. Further, this brought the youth, the decision makers, eminent members of the civil society, corporate leaders and senior political leaders on one common platform.

I would like to applaud the bold, dynamic and visionary leadership of Rahul Karad. From concept to execution, he leads from the front. I must also appreciate the commitment of Government of Maharashtra, as shown by its genuine support of the idea as well as the event.

I am confident that if we mobilize the student leaders all over the country, instill confidence in them, create a social awakening, then India will be on the move to occupy a top seat at the table in the Comity of Nations as the 21st century unfolds.

I extend my heartiest greetings for the successful conduct of the 9th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad.

MESSAGE

EXECUTIVE PRESIDENT

In spite of having a covetous force of youth population in India, the pace of progress is not gaining the desired motion. The nation is waiting for leaders of iron will, who can undertake the herculian task of nation building. Instead of waiting for others, it becomes our Rashtra Dharma to come forward and shoulder the responsibility.

According to the Great Noble Son of India Swami Vivekananda, "Union of Science and Religion/Spirituality alone will bring peace to mankind". When we founded the World Peace Centre, MAEER's MIT, Pune in 1996, we took a step towards trying to bring together science and spirituality with the intention of establishing a 'Culture of Peace in the World'. When more and more knowledgeable and motivated youth take active interest in nation building, India will be in a position to lead the world in all areas.

The resounding success of the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad has generated hope for India's future. The MIT Group of Institutions, Pune, India is proud to have hosted this august gathering and would like to extend its whole-hearted support for this noble cause through UNESCO Chair in the coming years as well. I am confident that the energy and enthusiasm witnessed will be converted into a positive action on the part of our youth.

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN

During our freedom struggle the idea of 'Nai Talim' was contemplated by Mahatma Gandhi and his close associates. The purpose was to integrate academic learning with external environment. At a higher level, the scheme stimulated students' awareness about the surrounding issues and empathy about it and initiated their preparation for social commitment.

The concept could not gain enough ground, but its relevance remains everlasting. And especially in today's times, when educational system has become so career-oriented, compartmentalizing the society and rendering individuals as isolated units in themselves. Instead of bringing people together it has created walls and distances among them.

Consequently, there is apathy among the students about the serious issues in the society and lack of concern for the marginalized population. This self-centric education can't create leaders and activists.

This state of affairs needs major churning. Fortunately, the initiative by MIT School of Government to organize the Indian Student Parliament deserves appreciation. It will help percolating the social bonds and commitment and inspire students for action. Its motto 'Inspiring Youth For Strengthening Democracy' is greatly symbolic in the sense that time has come for the action of youth. I extend all my wishes for its success.

"Parliament is about discussion and debate. Through discussion and debate conflicts can be resolved without violence"

For over two decades, Ms Suu Kyi underwent numerous hardships. In honour of her dedicated and devoted quest for peace and democracy, she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1991. She has also been conferred with the Sakharov Prize for Freedom of Thought in 1990 and Jawarharlal Nehru Award for International Understanding in 1992, among other international recognitions.

Ms Suu Kyi addressed the gathering of 3rd Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad on 10th January 2013. Given below is an extract of her message.

"Parliament is about discussion and debate. Through discussion and debate conflicts can be resolved without violence. Some violence seems to have taken place in some parliaments but one would say these are aberrations rather than staunch conflicts. These can arise from singularity as well as from differences.

Please use this opportunity for discussion and debate to find out how you can make enduring values lost and how you find more values that will give hope to all of us who are living in the world that aims out to reach out to us from day to day."

Her speech was showcased during the inaugural session of the 4th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad.

Bharatiya chhatra sansad congratulates Malala yousafzai for winning the nobel Peace prize 2014 and extends best wishes for All her future endeavours.

"Thank you so much for inviting me, I am really sorry that I am not there, but it's a great opportunity to talk to Youth, the new generation. It is very important that the youth takes part in politics because the youth is the one who is going to be the future of tomorrow and for the country's prosperity and development, so it is necessary to be in politics.

I want to be in politics because I think it is the better way to work for education, work for the women's rights and for the development of my country. I truly and truly support all of you that join politics and work in politics because you are working for your country, for the people living in your country and your role is also important."

METHODOLOGY ADOPTED FOR BHARATIYA CHHATRA SANSAD

1. Conduct of Session:

Academic Sessions are based on various themes which reflect the important issues facing India/World currently. The sessions are initiated by the Vice Chancellors. Four student leaders express their views on the given topic before any other speaker so that they are not influenced, pressurized or burdened by the views of the other speakers. The Speakers of state assemblies speak next for 10 minutes. Adarsh Yuva Vidhayak Samman (Ideal Young MLA Honor) are given to two young MLAs. This is followed by speeches by Eminent Speakers who speak for 20 minutes each, followed by Q & A session. The Resolutions are put to voting towards the end of the session. This is the general methodology followed for all 8 sessions, while allowing for last minute alterations as per the demands of the situation.

2. Vice Chancellors:

The Vice Chancellors are amongst the most esteemed constituents of Bharatiya Chhatra/Yuva Sansad. They have the honour of putting forth their views at the beginning of each session and set the tone of discussion. The effort is to provide an opportunity to each and every Vice Chancellor of each university across India to put forth his/her views. A selection panel shortlists VCs of those universities which have not been represented in the earlier editions of the Bharatiya Chhatra/Yuva Sansad and invites them to participate.

3. Student Speakers:

A fair selection methodology is adopted while selecting the students who speak as representatives of the students during each session. A selection panel is formed comprising of faculty and other experts, who review the VCDs/DVDs received from those registered students who wish to speak on the given topic. The criteria adopted for selection is relevance of topic, content of speech, body language, confidence level etc. Based on this, the shortlisted students have to perform before the selection panel before the start of the Conclave. 4 students who excel in the above mentioned criteria are finally selected to speak during each session.

4. Adarsh Yuva Vidhayak Samman (Ideal Young MLA):

The practice of awarding the Adarsh Yuva Vidhayak was started during the 3rd Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. In each session, one or two young MLAs are felicitated for following sound democratic and parliamentary practices in their constituency.

5. Assembly Speakers:

The Speakers of all Legislative assemblies of India are intimated about the conduct of the Conclave well in advance. Invitations are sent to selected Speakers to be the Chairpersons of the sessions. Usually, the Speakers of assemblies not represented in the earlier editions of BCS are invited to occupy the Chair.

6. Main Speakers/Eminent Speakers:

Very eminent personalities from various fields like Politics, Media, Entertainment, Judiciary, Corporate, Bureaucracy etc are invited as Main Speakers or Keynote Speakers for each session. At times, more than one Main Speaker is invited depending upon the subject of discussion and the availability of the eminent personality.

7. Felicitation:

Felicitations of guests is a deep-rooted Indian tradition. At BCS, we have imbibed this tradition as a mark of respect to every contribution of every individual. The eminent speakers and other dignitaries along with student speakers are felicitated with a shawl and a memento.

8. Q & A Session:

Participating Students send in their questions on a printed format to the volunteers allotted for each seating block. The volunteer collects these questions and sends them to the selection committee present near the dais. The committee examines the relevance of the questions and selects an optimum number of questions depending upon the time available, but usually not less than 4. As the Q&A session starts, each selected student's name is announced who then goes to a podium kept beside each block and asks the question to the eminent speaker of the session.

9. Lifetime Achievement Award:

All the participants and personalities on the dais tie short pieces of string together to form a long, unbroken chain of unity, reaffirming their faith in the unity and integrity of India. This ceremony takes place at the end of the Valedictory Session, signifying the end of the 3-day conclave.

M. VENKAIAH NAIDU

The Hon'ble Vice President has thanked for your kind invitation and conveys his best wishes for the success of the function.

(Message for 8th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad)

When I see all of you in front of me, the future of India is safe in your hands - I am quite confident about the same. I request all of you to do hard work, believe in what you understand, try to practice it and then you will definitely become a good leader. One day, the world, the country and the community around you will definitely recognize you. This is what life has taught me. The ballot is more powerful than the bullet. If you defeat somebody by bullet, he will die, but the ideology will remain. If you defeat somebody by ballot, then there will be a rethinking of that ideology.

MESSAGE

I am pleased to know that the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad Foundation and the MIT School of Government are organizing the 9th Annual National Conclave of the Indian Students' Parliament (Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad) in Pune during January 18 - 20, 2019.

It is estimated that by 2020, India will become the world's youngest country with 64 per cent of its population in the working age group. In order to benefit from this demographic dividend, the government is striving to transition from Youth Development to Youth - led development. It is therefore imperative that youths take greater interest in the functioning of democracy and in the affairs of governance. During the last few years, the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad has emerged as an important platform for youth leaders to deliberate on challenges before the nation and to discuss ideas to increase the participation of youths in the process of nation building. I understand that more than 10,000 students from over 450 universities are participating in this year's Annual Conclave.

I congratulate the organizers and convey my best wishes for the success of the National Conclave.

MESSAGE - CHIEF PATRON

THE HON'BLE CHIEF MINISTER
GOVT. OF MAHARASHTRA

Mantralaya

20th January 2019

MESSAGE

It is indeed commendable that Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, Pune, has emerged as a national platform for the youth of India since it was incepted in 2011. As the Chief Patron of this purposeful platform, it is heartening to witness the plant of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, Pune, turning into a banyan tree in its 9th year. I wanted to address the young minds today personally but some other occupancy has prevented me from taking this opportunity.

It is not very common that thousands of youth from different corners of India traveling across to actively participate at a meaningful platform like Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. This is a good sign for our democracy and this is what was envisioned by our leaders and the Government to integrate maximum number of youth in the process of nation building.

For India to emerge as a politically astute and democratically secure country, it is imperative that its policy makers are well informed and clued up about the past, present and future requirements. It is indeed a great satisfaction that Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad provides opportunity to the university students to speak their thoughts and voice their opinion about the political happenings in the country and the required changes. Also, as they interact with those who are already a part of the political system they stand to gain the perspective, which will benefit them the country in the long term.

I am sure that with its focused efforts Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad will continue to channelize the energy of the youth in the right direction and will encourage them to take active part in politics and enter public life.

I am confident that Shri. Rahul V. Karad, the Founder of this platform, will continue to exhibit similar determination and conviction in his nation building activities.

I extend my warm wishes to the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad and all the young students participating in the 3 day of engaging discourse.

Date 17 OCT 2017

Dear Shri. Rahul Karad ji,

I am happy to learn that Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad continues with its intense efforts of preparing the youth for future leadership of Indian democracy. I am impressed by the fact that the platform has been galvanizing about 10 to 12,000 politically and socially active students from all states of India and building their perspectives for greater national causes.

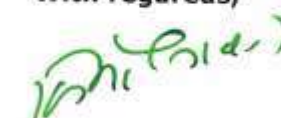

I have received your letter seeking to continue my association with Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad Foundation as its 'Patron'. You have also requested the State Government to continue its association and support to this noble activity in the coming years.

The Government of Maharashtra has been quite sensitive to the challenges faced by the youth and is very much committed to devise innovative and effective methodologies for their all-round development, so that their creative energy is significantly utilized for nation building.

Considering the synergy of vision and purpose, I accept to continue as its 'Patron' and also to extend support to the 8th annual national conclave of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (Indian Student Parliament) being organized on 19, 20 and 21 January 2018, at MAEER's MIT World Peace University, Pune.

Thanking you,

With regards,

(Vinod Tawde)

Ban Ki-moon

Then Secretary-General,
United Nations Organization

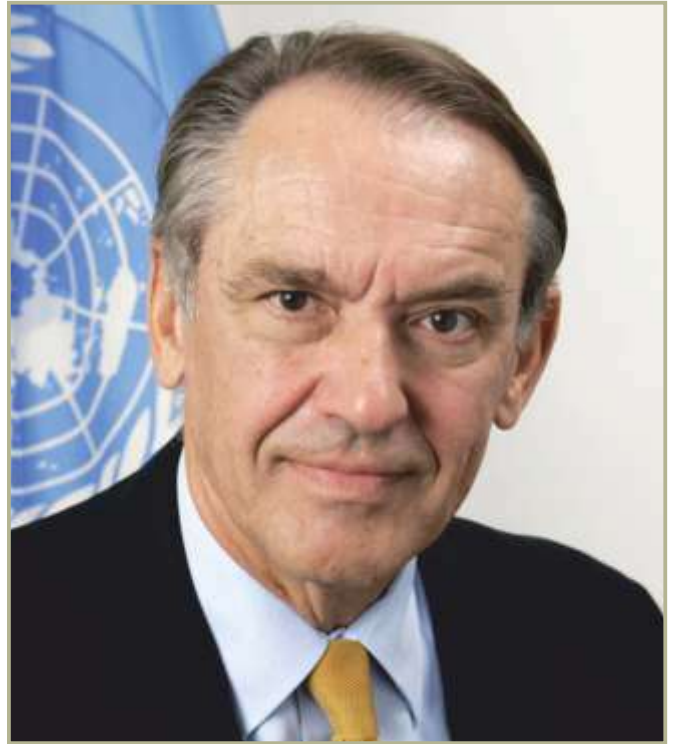

“You are part of the largest generation of young people our world has ever known. We must work together to help young people make the most of their energies, ideas and leadership potential.”

I am pleased to send my greetings to all the young people gathered for the Indian Student Parliament. You gather at a time of profound turmoil, transition and transformation. Insecurity, inequality and intolerance are spreading around the world. Governments are wasting vast and precious funds on deadly weapons while reducing investments in people. Too many people in power seem wilfully blind to the threat of climate change.

India is at a pivot point in its own history. In many ways, it faces the classic dilemma of a middle-income nation. On the one hand, we see India as the rising global power. On the other hand, India faces many of the challenges of a developing nation. For both these Indias, great opportunity awaits.

This is an era of great uncertainty, but also one of profound opportunity. No single leader, country or institution can do everything. But each of us, in our own way, can do something. Together, as partners, we can meet today's tests and seize the opportunities of an era of dramatic change.

Please accept my best wishes for a rewarding gathering.

Jan Eliasson

Former Deputy Secretary General, United Nations
Organization and Governing Board Chair,

“The Parliament's theme, “Inspiring Youth, Strengthening Democracy,” and objectives are very much aligned with the Secretary-General's five year action agenda for youth.”

I commend the Indian Student Parliament for providing this important platform that will help prepare youth for the future leadership of India and for having brought together so many perspectives to address important challenges that youth are facing. The Parliament's theme, “Inspiring Youth, Strengthening Democracy,” and objectives are very much aligned with the Secretary-General's five year action agenda for youth. My congratulations on the successful outcome of the event

Irina Bokova

Then Director - General,
UNESCO, Paris

“Let me commend this initiative of the MIT School of Government, Pune, India. Everywhere I travel I am inspired by the energy and the commitment to change that comes from young people.”

Let me commend this initiative of the MIT School of Government, Pune, India. Everywhere I travel I am inspired by the energy and the commitment to change that comes from young people. Young people are one billion strong in the world. They carry a billion hopes for a better world. The year 2011 will be remembered as the year the young people decided to take the torch of human dignity and speak up for human rights. It resulted in an unprecedented movement for democracy, justice and peace. Young people must be considered as actors for change and not simply as beneficiaries. They are already changing the world; they are enriching the culture and media. It is the role of UNESCO to give them the skills and tools to do so in ways that strengthen the ties between cultures that protect human rights and fundamental freedoms. Quality education is the starting point.

If we combine the hopes of youth with quality education, there is nothing we cannot achieve. This is where UNESCO will continue to fight, to provide each and every girl and boy with everything they need to share their ideas and act on them. Last October the UNESCO Youth Forum gave young people from all the member states a platform to share

experiences, and to forge new ideas together. Today this second Indian Students Parliament is another unique opportunity for you to debate ideas in a democratic spirit, to envision ways to make the world a better place. Be imaginative, generous and ambitious. As your great Mahatma Gandhi put it be the change you want to see in the world. You are not only the leaders of tomorrow, you are the leading actors of today.

I wish you every success in your discussions.

Martin Chungong

Secretary General, Inter Parliamentary Union (IPU)
(Union of Parliaments of 163 Nations Geneva, Switzerland)

“Without young people in politics, democracy is incomplete and policies cannot be properly articulated, well designed and fully implemented.”

Dear participants to the ISP, Namaste! I would like to congratulate you on your considerable enthusiasm in participating in this magnificent event that gathers young people from all corners of India, the world's largest democracy. I would like to commend in particular, Mr. Rahul Karad, Founder and Convenor, for his relentless efforts to inspire young people from India to get involved in the public affairs of their country by fostering open debate and dialogue.

Although we may be physically thousands of miles apart, we are united in our common pursuit to ensure youth participation in politics and decision making, which is part and parcel of the IPU's objectives and areas of work.

Dear Students, for those of you who do not know the Inter-Parliamentary Union, the IPU is the world organization national parliaments. Over 170 parliaments are the members of the organization representing more than 6.5 billion people. The IPU promotes democratic parliaments. A democratic parliament is one that is representative, transparent, accessible and accountable, including young people.

Patricia Scotland

Secretary General,
Commonwealth of Nations

“Such participation and readiness to learn more about how you can offer your talents for the common good and in service of your fellow citizens shows a laudable spirit of public service.”

Having been a parliamentarian and now a Secretary General of Commonwealth, it is a real pleasure to address you at the conclusion of the 7th Indian Students Parliament. I most heartily commend you all for taking part. Such participation and readiness to learn more about how you can offer your talents for the common good and in service of your fellow citizens shows a laudable spirit of public service. I urge you to remember that as well as being citizens of a great nation, India, you are citizens of a great global family of nations, the Commonwealth!

It is striking at such gatherings to see the productive interaction between participants working together, thinking together and learning from one another, whether they represent large and populous nations, small and vulnerable island states, vast economies or fragile, less developed countries. I am sure, you have found that whatever your specialist subject or discipline, and regardless of your personal areas of interest, this time at the students parliament has enriched your understanding of the value of discussion and debate and deepened your appreciation of the perspectives others contribute.

Anders B. Johnsson

Former Secretary General, Inter Parliamentary Union (IPU) Union of Parliaments of 163 Nations
Geneva, Switzerland

“ You are not the world’s first student parliament, you are probably not the world’s oldest one either, but I dare say that you might well be the world’s largest one because you belong to the country which has the world’s largest democracy. ”

I am very humbled as I sit here and I see you through my screen. I am very honored and pleased to have this opportunity to talk to India’s upcoming leaders who are gathered here in MIT campus in Pune for the 3rd Indian Student Parliament. You are not the world’s first student parliament, you are probably not the world’s oldest one either, but I dare say that you might well be the world’s largest one because you belong to the country which has the world’s largest democracy.

I was curious to see in your program you are discussing and encouraging young people like yourself to be a part of the political processes. I do think that it is extremely important that you do take part and that you take your own responsibility in politics. I have said that in our organization we deal with the issues of the society, this is very important issue for society and we welcome it.

I have a great feel of admiration for what you all are trying to do.

Kamalesh Sharma

Former Secretary General,
Commonwealth of Nations

“ We welcome your efforts to train and encourage your active participants in the democratic processes. ”

It is a pleasure to greet you as you assemble for the Indian Student Parliament. We say that the heart of democracy beats in our parliaments. The admirable aims of this exercise of inspiring youth and strengthening democracy correspond with the value we try to promote in the Commonwealth.

I would encourage you to join with those of your fellow students throughout our worldwide family by participating in the Commonwealth Student Body. We welcome your efforts to train and encourage your active participants in the democratic processes.

You are sure to find participation in the 3rd Indian Student Parliament a rewarding experience and I wish you all joy and success in your deliberations and your debates.

Session 1 : Fake News and Social Media: A Lethal Combination

We, the participants of the 9th BCS, demand that education departments of all state governments should develop a curriculum in Higher Secondary Education to empower teen-agers to identify fake news and to take up remedial actions against Fake News on Social Media.

Session 2 : Indian Economy : Post Demonetization and GST

We, the participants of the 9th BCS, demand that the Union Government should prepare a time-bound action plan for inclusion of poor people and rural areas in the Digital Economy. Without penetration, access and ability to use the Digital Technology, radical measures such as Demonetization and GST will not be successful.

Session 3 : Curbing Crime Against Women: What Celebrities and Social Icons can do?

We, the participants of the 9th BCS, appeal to the Celebrities and Social Icons to campaign against Crime against Women without political bias and not to endorse or promote the misogynist advertisements / programmes and sexism in the public places, movies and any other mediums.

Session 4 : One Nation One Election : A Step Towards Great Governance

We, the participants of the 9th BCS, appeal to all the political parties and Election Commission of India to work towards evolving a consensus on rationalizing frequency of elections in India. The resources saved should be utilized to strengthen governance mechanism.

Session 5 : Casteism and Corruption: Biggest Blots on Indian Democracy

We, the participants of the 9th BCS, resolve not to vote in the forthcoming Lok Sabha election on the basis of Caste and Religion. We demand that the Central Government and all the State Governments must implement The Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013 in letter and spirit.

Session 6 : Judicial Turmoil : Disquiet and Dissent of Indian Judiciary

We, the participants of the 9th BCS, appeal to the highest authorities in Indian Judiciary to uphold its autonomous vis-à-vis the Executive and Legislative in order to maintain democratic ethos of the country.

Special Resolution-1

Together is progress, working together is success and staying together is a better place. My dear friends thank you that we can say that leaders can be made by discipline as well as making future leaders for the country reminds me of Swami Vivekananda's words- "Few Good Men and women can do more in a year." I would like to conclude my speech by saying that we should work together for the development of country.

Among the four to five hundred entries that came, forty-sixty students were selected to share their views upon governance, democracy and leadership. Long back I communicated with the people sitting on the dais, with youth about this program and many people laughed at my idea for school of government. As to how can there be a school of government? How can we teach? For this you require power, you require muscle power, money power. It is not so simple as other courses, there must be training on how to get into public life. But I am very happy that MIT School of Government is in existence today! It has been 14 years now and since 2011, MIT School of Government has given birth to Bhartiya Chhatra Sansad. I always feel that the country needs such platforms for the promotion of democracy.

Shrimad Bhagwat Mahapuran

It is a matter of self-realization that we have done evil work in the fear of heaven, avoiding sin, staying away. In religion, man controls himself. The second power is the society. The customs of the society and the acceptance of the custom, accepting it, will also be a little different in the customs from time to time. If there is to be a living in the society then the norms of the society will have to be obeyed. Otherwise, there is fear of being dishonored in society.

I have said in many forums, many times that we have the 'national anthem', the national symbol, the national animal etc. But we do not have a national lord. It's a little short and says that we are secular country. How can a nation be here? The God I am talking about is just secular. The national God should be one.

Consul General,

At this very important moment with MITWPU organizing the 9th Bhartiya Chhatra Sansad at MITWPU in Pune, it is indeed an excellent move. Organizing event for the youth concerning today's youth represents a significant portion of world population. Through such extreme programs the youth are expecting to gain useful experience in order to broaden knowledge and transfer those to fellow youth throughout the country. Youth are the future of our democracy and we all have strong confidence in them. I have to state that democracy may be under pressure on many fronts but our future remains bright. We have learnt that high economic growth does not always means equality nor prosperity to all. Therefore it is important to make an occasion accessible for all people and create a conclusive environment for open expression of opinion, knowledge and experience. Youth should play their role in promoting more participation in politics, deliver changes in society and create understanding.

Democracy at this time is not in a good form. There are so many problems but there is no better method of governance which can be followed so beautifully. To enrich the democracy; there has to be a continuous process and this is very much a part of it. My concern and question is which politics will you join? What sort of democracy will you promote? What sort of India do you dream of? I become more restless and think of my future. So whether people in ruling parties, in the opposition, in bureaucracy, in judiciary everywhere we find as they settle in their office they become reluctant to take decisions. We need to create end to end thinking. Our constitution has fundamental rights and fundamental duties; most people don't know their fundamental duties.

I want to appeal to you from this platform of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, and would like to tell you from my experience of 25 years in this political field, that we need good well-educated and cultured politicians in the country. Many of us wish to go in the field of engineering and medicine or law but I would like you to be interested in the political field also, because India is the largest democratic country in this world and if democracy is there that means elections would be there and for that we need good leaders. This is the demand of today. We want good leaders for our country. I appeal to you to join politics as your career. Our economy is depending on education. Our mission has been chosen to build this nation, and to make this wonderful nation - the Vishwa Guru in the long run. My mother India will have a role to play, to show happiness, satisfaction and pathway of peace to the world. Being a professor of Mechanical Engineering and particle physics I am certainly a follower of words of wisdom spoken by Vivekananda. We have to realize what this Indian culture stands for? This Indian culture, tradition gives message of humanity. Stanford university, Cambridge, MIT Boston, they have started the school of divinity. They are searching for scholars from India to be the professors, and the most beautiful part is that Silicon Valley is more than half full of Indians. We need to bring a new face of Indian culture through the dignitaries on and off the dais. We have to tell the world that this is the country that worships knowledge and the search for wisdom and truth.

CHIEF GUEST

Friends when I was thinking about youth, actually youth is a mental state. We know at the age of 16 Dnyaneshwara started writing in the same country, Siddhartha left the royal home saw sorrows outside and returned as Sage Buddha. Vardhaman left home and returned as Mahaveer. Shankaracharya built the country in one formula. This is Vivekananda's country. Education shows us the way to go ahead. This is a knowledge society. Knowledge is power in this world.

My young friends always remember this. If you want to make your career in politics and you want to reach the top, you should know the condition of the land. What it is made of then only you can create something new. I hope students going out of Chhatra Sansad will make a difference in this world and make Swami Vivekananda's dream of New India come true.

IDEAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY SPEAKER AWARD

Biman Banerjee

Speaker, West Bengal State
Legislative Assembly

Our constitution makers adopted parliamentary democracy as a system of governance to deal with the social, religious and ethnic diversity in our country. I would like to appeal to the students those who want to join politics, those who want to become MLA or MP, it is not a great work, instead serving humans is important. Nowadays, argument has become the environment in politics, and it is not good. To become a human being is the great thing. It is important that you should take care of your neighbours, your peers who are in difficulty and take care of your society. We should live together peacefully. We can do this work with pure hearts and something for mankind. I would like you to join politics and to do your work honestly. Do it for the benefit of common people for their betterment.

Swami Vivekananda use to say "The future of India is with the youth of India." The power to lead the entire world is in the youth of India.

Prof. Spenser, in his book "The fundamentals of journalism" has pointed that the basic principles of news are very important. First is Freedom. You have to enjoy freedom and respect freedom. Second is responsibility, when you publish a news write a news, when you spread news, the whole full responsibility lies with the reporter and editor. No 3 is truthfulness. Let us make good governance on the basis of right information. Economy is not only freedom, economy is empowerment.

In today's time social media has become a medium for wrong news, this mixture of social media and wrong news has become a theft for this generation. Our bad luck is that some of our kind use this medium to violate peaceful situation. We should try every time to use this medium and not spread any unpeaceful things.

It is our duty to feel responsible, we should think, how our one mistake can destroy livelihood and life of others with social media and fake news. We should really be careful, and see that it does not harm our democratic system. It should not make us feel ashamed on this world stage. Every journalist should use his pen very carefully, and every common person should understand only after some evidence or proof, of any action is to be taken.

Fake news is a relatively recent phenomenon. It's not very old the way fake news is being propagated these days but we have already seen how harmful it can be. It has led to loss of life. We have heard about how it has huge potential to manipulate democratic elections, so we all are aware of it. I am sure, all of you have come across fake news. Fake news is a very generic term. When I refer to fake news essentially for these purpose I'm talking about the information that are biased, information that are motivated, information that are manufactured, information that are mischievous. So I'm essentially dealing with those kind of fake news and all of you know information that are spread intentionally, there is purpose behind it. The originators are at least aware that what they are spreading is unverified, unchecked news is probably malicious news, its biased news and still they do it.

Ladies and gentleman social media is a fantastic tool. It helps you to express yourself. It provides you with a platform but more importantly social media sites provide you with an audience. With great power comes great responsibility and slamming the propagation of fake news on social media is a one such responsibility.

The moment you have the answers and are satisfied with all the questions you my friend will know the truth. In the end I would just say when next you come across a link stating that "for latest gossips and news click here," I suggest you run as far away as you can. But virtually off course my friends wake up, realize and scrutinize.

“ Slamming the propagation of fake news on social media is also a responsibility ”

Shailesh Kumar Pandey - Chhattisgarh

Social media which is the medium of communication has now become the market of false information. Every person is becoming victim of this false information. Now a day's our emotions have also become a business in social media. I think that we have changed the blessing of communication into a curse. My friends to curb fake news in social media we have two solutions, first is to take action on the source of the news or we can develop such a portal in which we can put all fake news so that enquiry can be made and action can be taken so that it will be stopped or ended forever.

“ Every person is becoming victim of this false information ”

Social media indeed is a little combination of social networking platforms like Facebook, Twitter etc. that enables wide spread circulation of fake content like how a virus takes over our body and then we rush for immediate medical intervention and learn of truth by the process of scrutiny and discretion. Yes you have heard me right we have all made this mistake. We have all at least once been fooled, misled by the news and it's high time that we do something about it. What would happen to a community? What would happen to a business? What would happen to governance, if we can't trust what we see what we read or hear!

“ The founding principle of civilization thrives in the ability and capability of a person to distinguish fact from fiction ”

Imaad Ul Hasan - Maharashtra

I believe this is one of the most important issues of our generation. Thus when we speak against fake news we are speaking for the innocent people who have lost their life in Jharkhand, Bashirat, Muzzafarnagar and many more places. When we are speaking for curbing the fake news we are speaking for curbing the possibilities of turning innocent people into brutal murderers and human bombs because fake news. In the history of this planet whenever some people try to create a majority, conclusive, communal hateful society they always use this weapon of fake news to accomplish their dreams. Hence I believe we need to ponder upon the solution to find this rampant increase of fake news.

“ Fake news most of the time is an intended, well structured, well designed propaganda to inflict hate and animosity in society ”

Namaskar. So the anchor said very wonderful things about me 'jaise ki Udaan baki hai aur Aasman hai' but when you really start you don't know where you are heading and when you start you are like every other student who sitting in the audience today. I had absolutely no ambitions. I was a good student doing well while I was in the college. I had no ambitions but in 1985 my editor got a better offer and he left the job all of a sudden. So my publisher thought about me, since I was second in video editing and wireless talking. I am just a very good second, I am not a leader quality person. At that time, I lost my father. So I discussed it with my mother and the officers ask me to be the editor and my salary was going to be three times.

First I thank you so much The Indian student parliament, who chose me as a ideal MLA of India , secondly I want to say thank you to Bharatiya Janata Party who gave me the opportunity to serve the people of our country, to serve the people in such a working age. Ours is the country in which there is unity, which we call mother. So many young people are present here. I would like to say to all of you that winning is the responsibility that we take for our family. The same responsibility we should take for our mother India. Therefore, whatever we can do for our India, we should never turn back and do whatever we can for our country. We must be proud that we are Indian. After GST and demonetization while everyone was expecting the Indian economy to go to rags, we survived and we are strengthening. I urge you to understand that these two events are not isolated rather a part of a long drawn strategy. For example universal banking brought 92% of the population under the bank, 14% of the digital transaction will increase and all these policies were promoted much before the question and now the economy is most smooth and clean for the honest people. It's very high time that we have a learning perspective towards the government policies and see how they are beneficial for nation building instead of falling into a political propaganda.

“ Even the defaulters are compelled to pay back their loans and form these deposits. ”

Rajvardhini Pawar - Maharashtra

Indian economy, our Indian economy largely with 90% of its transactions in cash and around 10% transactions in digital form for such a huge economy to run. It is necessary to have a strong base and as we all know that our backbone of economy is money. In the recent years structural reforms, related to money have taken place. One is demonetization and the other one is GST. Before the structural reforms, funding was going on to Jammu Kashmir. Being the youth of our nation we should support our nation in the journey of becoming the strongest economy.

Tincture is almost painful and unbearable but if left untreated we may lose the entire leg. This tincture is called demonetization. It is the surgical strike against the corrupt attitude and cheating by people who have been doing injustices to the nation. I will call GST as the much needed immune booster for the Indian economy. With GST we have been able to convert into a single market entity of 1.3 billion citizens contrary to the popular beliefs on traders having protected from GST. I want to draw your attention that compared to the last 5 years today India is in a much more stable position with respect to 3 in macroeconomic indicators fiscal deficit, inflation and current account.

“ I will call GST as the much needed immune booster for the Indian economy. ”

Chaila Chowdhary - Bihar

Though demonetization and GST are considered to be the economic reforms in India, it has impacted every sphere of business economics. When GST was introduced into the economic system it so happened that it took almost 6 months for even the corporate sectors to understand the taxation policy and such things happen then definitely hindrances in the economy are bound to happen.

I want to say that no system is wrong, no policies are wrong, no government was wrong. Demonetization is a result of monumental mismanagement into the economic system and yes if the evaluation goes right all the time our economy will be the largest economy and also the strongest economy in the world.

“ GST has impacted every sphere of business economics ”

I believe you all are future of the country you have to look with a fresh look and approach, you have to rework on entire economic model to understand why the farmers are dying! Why Vijay Mallya is running out of the country and nothing happens to it. He carries with him 9000 crores and look at the poor farmer who is in the jail for 2 lakh rupees or one lakh rupees nobody complains... nobody ever complains. The point I am trying to make is that if you make agriculture viable, sustainable the country's economy will get rebooted. I already know the younger lot is very much committed towards the Nation. You all should not get influenced by any false statement. Let us try to rebuild the India where agriculture will reboot the economy thank you very much!

We keep saying that India has a demographic dividend and the demographic dividend is basically the youth of India. The only problem is we seem to think that this demographic dividend is going to stretch on forever and forever but that's not the fact. The fact is in 20 years time the dependency ratio of India is going to change. In 20 to 24 years time you will have an India where there will be more people required to be supported and less and less people will be working, therefore we have this window of 20 to 24 years. Within which time if we do not become a middle income, a developed country we are not going to get the chance again for 82 to 100 years! Therefore the student population of today needs to realize that the window available for this country to really become a developed country is very limited.

If you look at the NCRB National Crime Record Bureau's statistics, you'll find that 3.4 lakhs cases of crime against women have been reported. There has been an increase of 2.9% over the last year. If you look at this prime data you will see 30-32 % rise in domestic violence, 25 % sexual harassment, 11.5 % increase in rape cases and many cases are unreported.

Therefore I want to tell you that we all have to fight for gender equality. We have to educate our boys, girls and youth, and we have to train our police forces to fight against these forces. So let's all work together as a team. We all have to work together to curb the atrocities against women. Let's build a new India and a new country.

Swami Vivekanand ji said in his own words, soul has no sex. He also stated that there is no chance of the welfare of the world unless the condition of women improves. Women have suffered for years and that has given them infinite patience and infinite perseverance. If a man wants his peaceful end, wants the welfare of the world, then he should reduce sex determination and discrimination. Women are leading ahead of men in many sections. Government has also taken few initiatives in regards to this. I find one step very important among this. That is 'tin talak'. Change in this particular dimension will give rise to many more big positive changes in society. Hence we need to get motivation from big personalities, develop positive attitude about women then nothing like that. I would again like to congratulate this MITWPU.

So I would like to thank once again to government of Kerala for its four mission which indeed makes the work very easy. First is the green Kerala mission, second one is the mission for strengthening the public education, and the third one is the mission for promoting the health sector. Good afternoon everyone, India is a land of diverse culture, country of a billion people, speaking 22 different languages and ancient civilization history of 5000 years and yet the crime against women is increasing day by day and it is important to talk on the role of celebrities and social icons in curbing crime against women. The main method to curb crime against women is preventing it from happening is by curbing the root cause. Celebrities and social icons have great access to the society and can indeed create social consciousness and social awareness by bringing reality through virtual media. How we critically analyse that part and conduct critical analysis is what we need to look upon. Celebrities and social icons intoned to transform themselves as change makers.

“ The main method to copy crime against women is preventing it from happening by curbing the root cause ”

Ishwaryaa V S - Tamilnadu

I am talking about the crime against women. We all know that we have to do much more to respond to the price for justice to women who have suffered by large. It is an urge to end the horrible abuses of crimes against women. I aim to you show the world only because for a women, crime is an extreme manifestation of gender based inequality and systematic gender based discrimination. Not only celebrities and social icons but also different sectors in society must work together to stop this discrimination. They must create awareness to stop the crimes and participate in every aspect. Dear friends, let's stop this crime. Let's work towards the betterment of women and make their future for safe them.

“ Different sectors in society must work together to stop this discrimination ”

Nivedita Dutta - Assam

What an irony we are living today. On one hand in India the symbol for strength is a woman goddess Shakti but on the other hand in the category of beti padhao Beti Bachao Andolan, a beti is burnt in Agra while she is cycling back from school. We have to highlight achievements of women leaders so that the young girls can get inspired. Women represent the half of the Indian population. We are not a minority and even after 70 years of independence only 8% of the parliamentary seat are occupied by women.

“ Women represent the half of the Indian population. We are not a minority. ”

Merel Havinga - Netherland

I think the world has to be a safe place for all of us humans, especially for women. A famous American actress on Twitter encouraged women on hash Tag ME TOO to show how wide the problem of sexual harassment is within society. The movement is slowly gaining momentum in the Netherlands and also in the different parts of the world. Women should speak out about their experiences.

You all know me due to the Shani Shingnapur activity, Haji Ali, Shabarimala, these movements took place for Gender Equality. The right of gender equity is what the constitution has given us in the 1950s but even after 67 years, we have to fight for it. We are threatened for this. When we ask for our rights then the police detain us, this is very unfortunate. In this 21st century still superstition is not eradicated. I also believe in God, but my point is, if God does not discriminate between men and women, then who are we to prevent us?

The social activists and youth of this country need to change the mindset of people. I am an alumna of MIT School and I am thankful to Dr. Karad for inviting me and giving me this opportunity to share my views. We may face difficulties in doing some work but we must keep trying.

I am an actor and after that I am a politician. I start with Shakespeare's Quote or saying- "All the world is stage and all the men and women are merely players." We live for ourselves, we make our careers but it is very important to work for world, upliftment of the society, especially for women. We see women constitute 50% of the population of this country. Women need to understand their own potential that they need to fight for their own rights. It's important that we create an atmosphere of intolerance to tolerance, to not tolerate for bad behavior against women. I would urge one and all not to be selfish but be positive about your own profession and also try and make difference in society it's very very important.

The 9th Chhatra Sansad is a very important initiative because a parliament of young people from different parts of India have the opportunity to listen to different voices, different points of view and come to your conclusions and then have an opportunity to answer questions. I also want to say this specifically to all the women ladies and especially young girls. If discrimination is done using religion in the wrong way, if injustice is done, if we being a woman, a young girl do not challenge, then the country will never develop and succeed. I have seen a very positive change when young women are asserting themselves. Dream big but dream for the women of this country. I would like to speak youth in politics, which is important in contemporary India at present and which is very essential. In Delhi whenever we used to talk to the students about the politics everybody was interested in the change, the change in system but not me, somebody else. This is what the situation is. The fact in India is that we can change the situation Students have given the tagline it was 'we love politics' it means youth has to love politics whenever we attend the programs in the universities. I want to convey the message that we should love politics, everybody wants that there should be one Bhagat Singh in the country, but it should be not in my family but in other's family. We have to think that we have to enter politics.

“ Everybody is interested in the change, the change in the system but not themselves.”

Swati Dhote - Chhattisgarh

According to the Election Commission, the expenditure of one election is approximately 4500 crore rupees. And in our country, if these elections take place, along with the huge amount, resources and time will be saved as well. With the election of repeated elections, such as rust in development, the important policy closes in the paper itself. Chanakya ji said, "The welfare of the nation is in the hands of the teacher". Unfortunately, the teachers of our country are so busy in the electoral system that they do not give all the time to the education of the children by giving them electoral arrangements.

“ Chanakya ji said, "The welfare of the nation is in the hands of the teacher". ”

Pradnya Bhagat - Maharashtra

The amount spent in the election of the Lok Sabha in 2009 was 1700 crores, the same cost was 4000 crores in the 2014 elections. It is estimated that this expenditure could be more than 7000 crores in the 2019 elections. This is the statistics of all the Lok Sabha elections. Otherwise, there are assembly elections and many elections in our country, where the expenditure in elections will be more than the Lok Sabha elections. If these many elections happen together, our country will be saved of spending many thousands of crores.

India is not only known as the world's largest democracy, it is also known for its independent and unbiased election. But this electoral process has to be repeated and repeated. In the last 30 years, there was not a single year in which there were no elections. In these elections thousands of crores of rupees, months of time, many resources and hundreds of thousands of human beings are found in the proof. The 'Republic of our country' is turning into a voting machine. Let's take a resolution that 'democracy will not be transformed into a voting machine', come together and take a resolution, '1 country 1 election.'

“ Let's come together and take a resolution, '1 country 1 election.' ”

List out the tremendous advantages that contribute in the pool for the Nation's progress and helps in reducing the amount of Manpower that had been invested in holding this electoral polls here. Contesting elections in 5 years gives major focus on the service and less crimes in the country. There's something called the model code of conduct and the government should have certain does and dongs, in order to contest elections. This will contribute in the progress of the region. Every coin has two sides. My friends but we need to realise which side weighs more. As someone has rightly said men look out of the prison bars and feel smart, while the others see stars.

“ Every coin has two sides. My friends but we need to realize which side weighs more. ”

Vivek Kumar Agnihotri (Retd. IAS)
Former Secretary General, Rajya Sabha

"Elections in India are Carnival of democracy. One Nation, one tax, one election is the real slogan. You can't have elections on the fluke. You can't have many elections on the same day in the constitution and then there are the constitutional amendments in representation of People Act. It will be required rules of Lok Sabha and state assemblies. No confidence motion will have to be repaired. I mentioned International book practices are there in parliamentary system. Constructive vote of no confidence is there in Federal Republic of Germany. I have already mentioned consensus building.

I have 4 years of experience in politics that will help students and they should come in politics and most awaited population /crowd is the young generation students who should come in politics so that they can have their own idea .Young generation people ideas are very new and their view towards looking at things is different in all angles which will help people in taking the nation forward. My message to youth is that no matter which stream you are from should get into politics and strengthen the roots of the country. Once you are educated you have so much knowledge and it will really help the people. Like I am doctor so I know the need for basic health and basic sanitization. All these things are not a part of my village but when I became the Sarpanch, I knew I needed to get these things. You can really bring the change needed in this country.

He said when you take a step, 1.5 crore people take that step ahead with you and I have taken the step and I want to make sure that at least 3500 people of Majalgaon take that step ahead with me. If any state government is not good then I can create the order for it. There is always a Governor rule or president rule in the Assembly. There was a government in Telangana for 5 years. In the cabinet they decided that there should be elections in the state and they have done it. If election has to be happen then it would happen whether in different states or assembly or one Nation one election. I did not know that the election commission is comprised of a very few people. According to me one Nation one election is not possible at all in the constitution in the federal structure. Democracy is all about good governance. Let's think about political science. It is a science. It is never wrong. We can commit mistakes but science cannot run away from politics.

I have been in educational system for the last 45 years and that is the most corrupt system in the country today. Bangalore university is one of the biggest university in the country. I have trifurcated Bangalore university into 3 universities. Casteism cannot be eliminated totally but it can be controlled by good governance, strict accountability, strong legislation and an active civil society. It will continue to weaken democratic governments in this country. Where do evils like corruption arise from? It comes from the never ending greed. The fight for corruption free ethical society will have to be fought against this greed. It is like diabetics can only be controlled but not totally eliminated. It may not be possible to root out corruption completely at all levels, but it is possible to contain it with tolerable limits and my time is over.

I totally agree that Casteism and corruption are the biggest blots on Indian democracy, but what are we going to do about it? the question is are we going to take the short cuts and make sure that we get an easy way out or take a slightly longer route which will also lead to some disappointments and discouragements. But then we are looking at a better India. When we say no to corruption, so goes with Casteism. I come from a family of freedom fighters Mahatma Gandhi ji, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru ji and all the freedom fighters not only fought for the freedom of country, but also they also fought against casteism. They fought for caste parity within our country. They had told us that we have to really learn and we have to live through the constitution of India.

Thank you once again for giving me this recognition. It is rightly said that the faith of the nation truly depends of thought process of youth, the younger generation and that is you. And therefore I urge the youth of India, let us come out of our own cocoons, break the barriers that hold us, the barriers that block us from progress and development of this country and join our hands together. Let us come together as one people, as Indians and let us contribute for the nation building of this great country, Hindustan.

Friends, when in 1947 our country got freedom from British rulers no one had thought that in coming days India will be deeply affected by Casteism and corruption and it will be a dark side of it. For corruption free India we need to fight and find the root cause of it. I want to appeal to the young people sitting in this great program organized on the land of the great social reformer Jyotiba Phule and the great Gopal Krishna Gokhale, on this stage we take the vow to eliminate racism and corruption from the root cause. We will remove it.

“ For corruption free India we need to fight and find the root cause of it ”

I am going to speak on a very important topic, “Casteism and Corruption: the biggest Blots in Indian Democracy”. Crime rates on Dalits have increased 25% from 2006 to 2016 and cases uninvestigated are 99 %. Talking about corruption I don't know where to start from. Education, religious institution, basic facilities? Since I am a student I would like to start with education. Absenteeism is one of the biggest blots on Indian education system and absenteeism of teachers not students. India ranks second after Uganda in absenteeism according to a report published by UNESCO.

“ Caste is so Indian that it is marked as one of the essence of the Indian society ”

Whenever we discuss the issues about casteism and corruption in our country, I feel that it is my duty to focus on the past history of our country. This caste system killed human and humanity. Unless we remove this caste system we won't be able to fulfill the dreams of the creators of the Constitution. Babasaheb Ambedkar had said that we have entered in such a weird situation where there is political equality but social, cultural and financial inequality. If we really want a revolution then for equality based society we need to apply constitutional remedies.

“ If we really want a revolution then for equality based society we need to apply constitutional remedies ”

Koen Langeslag - Netherland

I see corruption as a threat to democracy and I think inequality is on the basis of corruption and I will tell you why? Corruption is a big problem across the whole world and it's done on the biggest levels and highest levels in authority. How can we have a democracy if we do not have a fair chance to be part of our democracy? I am not here to bribe you with words but I am here to invite you to treat each other equally and to give everybody the same fair chance so ring the bell of the democracy and fight corruption.

Many people talk about casteism in a wrong way but some people talk even good things about it. Caste in 'Politics' divide, but caste in 'Economics' unite. According to the World Bank report – The World Bank suggests that the remarkable growth of Tirpur in Tamil Nadu is due to the coordinated efforts of caste groups known as a "Gonder" many of them are not even matriculates. I quote, World Bank Report - Since 1985 Tirpur has become a hot bed of economic activity in the production of knitted garment. By 1990, with the high rate of growth of the export it became the world leader of the knitted garment industry. Success of this industry is striking.

I had taken a decision that when I have my own company, I will take only fresher and will not take experienced people. Today I have 1800 boys and their first employer is me. You must have a lot of courage when you have nothing to lose. 'If you do whatever you have studied, you will survive. But you do what you have not studied you will be the leader.' When I was 37 I asked myself 'for which reason you came to survive or to win? As you come so far you have to win.' You have to become big or to be old? We become old naturally and in government job early. If you have to become big you have to take a risk. Please employ fresher. Please employ poor. Everyone should get monthly salary from you this is my wish.

We need to start redefining Casteism from within ourselves. We live in the democratic country of India, the largest democracy in the world and yes there are various religions mostly Hindus, Muslims, Christians, Sikhs, Buddhism, Dalits and there are three thousand castes and twenty five thousand sub castes. Casteism is an unfortunate reality of today's time. But it is not about today's time, Casteism has been plaguing India since thousands of years. But yes Casteism in those times defined by the kind of work people used to do. The corruption of mind is the unfortunate reality. The system itself is corrupt and everything is a part of that system. Somebody demands money, somebody is giving for his own personal reasons. May be he does not have choice to get his work done. Now I only want to say one thing is let's stop the corruption of mind and yes ultimately the corruption of money will inadvertently stop.

It's an honor to be here and the Rahul Sir was mentioning in the morning when we met that how science and spirituality has to coexist. Whenever a boy and a girl are born, then the first thousand days are most important and we have to take at most care because in the spiritual respect the body is most involved when babies are born. As we grow up physically, if the spiritual respect is not groomed under the circle of remembrance, then they diminish while we grow physically.

If we live in the same spiritual realm, then along with the grooming of the world, those spiritual organs are also groomed, by which success in this world is achieved. So the message is that let's make our work our meditation.

I want to make you understand that there are two types of knowledge, one is material knowledge and the other is spiritual knowledge. The union of science and spirituality is for the substance of physical body. This material knowledge is compulsory but for elevation of consciousness in the world spiritual knowledge is truly essential. Without spiritual knowledge material knowledge is worthless. Only when you attain the union of science and spirituality and gain holistic knowledge, will you develop a sustainable balance in IQ EQ and set an example for the world.

Today I am going to talk about an important subject which is explosion of our country's population. There are many aspects to population control and one of the major aspects is that we should have a political will. You will find that all the problems that we are facing traffic, shortage of houses, etc. the main route cause is increase in population.

Now there are so many things, such as age of marriage, literacy, communication by government, allocation of GDP for education, incentive by government etc. which should be utilized to curb this problem. What is required is on the war footing is that we should deal with the problem and immediate step is required by the legislation by which 2 childbirths per family and above that should not be encouraged. I appeal to the participants of Chatra Sabha to take this subject very seriously because that will give a better future for a better generation.

Friends my topic for today is casteism, caste discrimination, and corruption. How even today it is a stain on the democracy of India? I would like to thank MIT for admitting the fact that casteism is still prevalent in the Indian society and it is dangerous for the democracy of India. Brutality and violence are spoken about but keeping the dalits aside. We should travel and see the world someone said. You would be surprised to know from this country educated people have taken the degree and shifted to UK. There they settled down and they did so much discrimination with dalits settled there that British Government had to come up with the law called Equality billing. To such extent castism is still alive.

If you want to create a new India, real democracy then caste has to be thrown into the dustbin.

There are many students from this MIT School of government who have actually contested elections elected right from Sarpanch elections on up to Parliament. It is also called parliamentary procedures journey from panchayatiraj to panchayats to Parliament, booth management and social media. This is a particular topic which is not in any other college. Political economy is another important subject because unless students know economic and political economy they will not be able to participate in active politics. International relations and functioning of various Ministries is also covered. The idea is that when the students go out from here they are 'election-ready', they are political ready citizens and they can take part in politics, actively.

The present faculty members like Mani Shankar Ayyar, Ashok Vankhede, Narendra Jadhav and N. Gopalaswami former election commissioner. These are the regular faculty members that you come across here and interact with students.

It is important to make the young generation aware of the values of non-violence. Truth and non-violence are two essential ingredients of Satyagraha. It was during the course of his struggle in South Africa where he developed his principles of Satyagraha. Further, it was in Champaran where Gandhiji's Satyagraha was first tried on the Indian soil. Gandhi remains the most enigmatic personality of all times. He had a passion for truth. He was a saint more than a politician. Learning from his deeds and principles, let's become satyagrahis and create a satyabharat.

I ask people how many people want to be police officers, they always raise their hands. How many people want to be lawyers then some people raise their hands, doctors many people raise of course. If I ask who wants to be a politician nobody raises their hand. There is a lot of work to be done. There is a lot of cleaning to be done but nobody wants to clean it, nobody wants do it. But I am very glad that there is one institute in the world that teaches people not to be good doctors, good engineers, but also good politicians. I have always thought, nobody comes with knowledge to an assembly. We always come with problems. We want to fight for the problems. We do not know how to communicate politically. I can communicate with one person to be but when it becomes hundred people the whole dynamics change.

I would like to put forward my views on Judicial Turmoil. Our constitutional history has had its own share of profit. In 1976, at the pick of national emergency four judges of the Supreme Court had held even the right to like, which was sustained during the state of emergency. Counter reform must be undertaken with most responsibility, maturity and composure.” Questions like what is judicial turmoil? What is judicial reform? What is its accountability? These are questions which need to be pondered upon.

“Counter reform must be undertaken with most responsibility, maturity and composure”

Girish Patil - Maharashtra

Considering the constitutional arrangement of India, it comes to mind that there are three main components in it which are divided into judicial, legislative and executive board. Today almost 65% of youth are the people of India but unfortunately, our politicians are misleading them. It appears that they are disrupting the constitution, so youth will challenge me on this platform. Let's take part in the politics of the country, and contribute in making our country Sujalam Sufhalam.

“There are three main components in it which are divided into judicial, legislative and executive board”

Shantanu Dhote - Maharashtra

Friends, we see that the judiciary and the government monitor the media so that they are not autocratic. Friends, till now we have been demanding justice from justice. But in our 72 years of independence our judges are demanding justice before the public. Friends Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar said "If a constitutional say that misuse, I shall be the first who burn it." But despite this our parliamentary and judicial primacy is being in misused. It is harmful to democracy if it is messing with someone's justice.

“ It is harmful to democracy if it is messing with someone's justice. ”

Jasvir Singh - Jammu & Kashmir

All students present on the forum and youngsters of the nation, at the Indian Students' Parliament Hall, after independence, on 15th August 1947, with new hope, we created a new facility and on January 26, 1950, became the world's largest republic. The biggest thing in it is that though their number is increasing, there has been an increase in corruption, and the confidence of the public has started decreasing. The Indian judiciary is the last hope of justice for the people of India.

“ On January 26, 1950, India became the world's largest republic ”

I cannot name any country that is a great Republic like India. Isn't it amazing? You will see broken republics in every country in south Asia. I don't know the reason behind it and it is a research subject. May be school of Government can do research on it. India still survives as a very powerful democracy, a real vibrant democracy. We must start by recognizing our institutional and non institutional pillars of Indian Democracy. And there are many of them which we take for granted, those are the pillars which we have nurtured then worshiped and they include of course secularism one of the abused words. Secularism is surely a non institutional but fundamental pillar of Indian Democracy. Our aim cannot be achieved unless we realize that we have to guard these institutional and non institutional pillars and sometimes the non institutional ones most zealously.

India is the largest democracy and we have the longest constitution. The subject given to me is very important, very alarming and very sensitive- 'Judicial turmoil disquiet or discrete of Indian Judiciary'. Liberty lies in the hearts of men and women and when it dies there no constitution. No law no court can save it. Liberty has to remain alive. A flame of liberty must keep on burning within our hearts. If we have value for liberty it has to be appreciated from within. Liberty is in our own self interest so we have to remain awake at all times. Let no one be allowed to interfere in your liberty and I think with this be a message for all of you need to remember that if you all want to become leaders of tomorrow see that democracy survives and the constitutional values are not tampered with.

We need the role of the government in the post retirement jobs of the judges. But as I said who will do this? Unless there is public pressure brought on the authority or on the government or Judiciary by the citizens who are the Real Stake holders specially the youth. I always say you are the real stakeholder in this country because so far as we are concerned our life is far behind; it is you whose life is ahead of you. You have to live in this country and in the system and institutions which we have created in this country. So if you find that the judicial system is dysfunctional and not working then it is your job and your role primarily to organise yourself. Raise your voices for these judicial reforms and then only we will be able to see any of these reforms.

MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

Minocher Patel

Founder Director, Ecole Solitaire

My point to you is remember this if you want to become something; look at the role models; learn from them but after becoming inspiring leaders don't make the nation perspire. I always share India is a rich country; the people are poor. I like to correct it. People are not poor, leadership is. We don't have quality leadership.

So always remember; become a good human being, become an honest human being. The problem in India is if someone says, you can change the constitution all the time but you don't have good human citizens in this country. We are ending with the disaster. So I believe all of you will focus on first becoming good human beings and good as students. One more thing I would like to give you please develop good habits. Good habits are extremely essential. The problem is we start behaving like a successful person before we become one.

SUMMING UP OF BHARATIYA CHHATRA SANSAD

Rahul V. Karad

Founder Convener, Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad

We always feel that we have our own issues of poverty, corruption and population and so many other issues. I myself am a great patriot and I will always look up to the Western world. They are today a developed economy; they have achieved beautifully, no doubt about that. But we are a very original thinking country. We keep on telling people that educated people should come into politics. Students have come from different parts of 25 states and have committed themselves for this Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad from morning 9 am to 6 o'clock.

I'm very happy to say that this is not an event this is a mission which we carried out and today in almost 35 to 37 places across the country there is state level involvement. People laughed at us that how can there be such a school in a country like India! I can tell you that many people supported me also at that time. I once again appeal to all of you to propagate this idea.

“ Educated people should come into politics ”

In the end, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the technical team, the volunteers, the Student Council of MIT world Peace University and most importantly the conclave associates who have been rigorously working from last three days to make this event a success story. LIGHTING OF THE LAMP

Tushar Gandhi

President, Mahatma Gandhi Foundation

Your aspirations are your possibilities, so keep the aspirations high. If you aim at Everest you might reach at Kanchunjunga but if you aim at Kanchanjunga, you might not even reach Hanuman Tekdi. Scarcity and aspirations are a great combination. I remember the conditions of that time, to buy and equipment it took me two years because we didn't have foreign exchange and clearance, the equipment was not manufactured in India and whole lot of things. So the first lesson is low budget does not mean low aspiration but low budget has to go with the high aspirations and high ideas. What is the second lesson? Yes, you can keep high aspiration but how do you achieve those aspirations? That is when hard work comes in. Like instant coffee there is no instant success. The third lesson, you can do anything but not everything, so you have to choose and you have to focus. Focus and you will achieve. Fourth one is, there is no limit for human achievement. Everyone is someone and the mind on the margin are not marginal minds. India is seen as the land of Ideas but USA is considered as the land of opportunities but the scenario is now changing and India is becoming the land of opportunities also.

The change in India has been huge. There are people in our society who are trained by their ideology to keep us unhappy one way or the other. Japan was devastated at end of 2nd world war. More bombs were dropped on Tokyo than on all of Europe. I have been there. If they build themselves up then why did we fail? Are we incapable, incompetent, not intelligent? No, we were badly led. We may have been led in terms of philosophical concepts of equality liberty and what not, but we have very badly led in economic matters. Create wealth but in a competitive situation, so as to keep a check on creator of the wealth so that he does not run amuck. If we follow these things our economic progress can rise beyond that of Korea and Japan.

GUEST OF HONOR

Vandana Shiva

Eminent Environmentalist & Founder,
Navdanya Bija Vidyapeeth (Earth University)

We have inherited an amazing legacy of interconnectedness in particular where we see ourselves as a part of our family and my life began with Chipko in the 70s, where the women woke the country up to the relationship between the rivers and the forest and that's why they came out to hug the trees. The word Chipko means a hug and they said we will hug the trees. You will have to kill us before you cut the trees, this is Satyagraha. The amazing gift of Gandhi for India, I appeal to you all to use it in your life. I have used them all the time. The first is the idea of Swaraj - self-organization, freedom from within, self-governance that is democracy. Swadeshi is the capacity to make, the capacity to create.

SPECIAL GUEST OF HONOR

Isaignani Ilaiyaraaja

Padma Vibhushan &
Acclaimed Music Director and Composer

If the government makes music compulsory in the schools and colleges and every educational institution, there won't be any violence in the country. Because when there is music in your heart, you cannot do violence. My humble request to the government is to make music compulsory. I look at you students as a wave in the ocean, the same waves that never come again. Tomorrow some other students will come, you won't be here. Just like water flows in the river, we continuously see the flow in the river but not the same water. We feel it's the same water which is flowing. When we think to take the water in our hand it is different water and when we take the water to drink it is different water. Wherever you go be like water make the place green, wherever you work, let that place grow on and on and this should be your priority.

Try to understand your family, your ancestors that you have to represent Indian culture not only in front of state but whole world. As I told you practicing music is a form of meeting with a God and it gives us peace. Meaning of spirituality is kaam, krodh, lobh, moha, mad, matsar, vikar, vikriti, vicar. Spirituality is the science to reduce this. It's not superstition. The misunderstandings which are spread over the world about Indian culture that we have to reduce and that responsibility is on your shoulder now. Try to read, try to learn and understand the lives of Ganeshwara and Tukarama and all the great philosopher saints of India and even the world. Please try to understand them. Sense of character and discipline are the two most important words with this institution called the World Peace University.

Leadership matters and we have leaders like professor Vishvanath Karad & Rahul Karad who conceived this idea of Indian student Parliament. And I am very happy that now the Indian government has decided to set up National youth parliament. Though leadership matters, at the end and post thought leadership has to be followed by action. The five Mantras, Mashelkar mantra I like to give and conclude very briefly in next 5 minutes. The first is that you must keep your aspirations high because if you aim at Everest, at least you land at the Kanchan Ganga. The second is persistence space. It is always too early to give up, remember winners never quit and quitters never win. The third is hard work. Unlike instant coffee there is no instant success. The fourth lesson is there is no limit to human achievement. I wish you all the best in becoming the creators of this radical yet sustainable transformation for our beloved Nation.

OATH OF DEMOCRACY & NATION BUILDING

EKTA SUTRA (BOND OF SOLIDARITY)

A band of solidarity (Ekta Sutra) was circulated in the valedictory session across the pandal, in order to spread the spirit of oneness and call for unity and solidarity among youth in general and the society in particular. This band in three colours - orange, white and green (signifying the Indian national flag), was bound together by all the participants and the dignitaries on the dais.

This act symbolized unity, solidarity and willingness to work together for the nation, with the hope that they would carry the message across the nation and also across the world to promote harmony and peace.

ABOUT MIT SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT

“Not all politicians are corrupt. There are more number of clean politicians. The youth should enter mainstream politics to serve the nation.”

- Rahul V. Karad

- First of its kind institute in India & Asia for a career in Politics
- 14 years, 350+ alumni in public life
- Two-year Post Graduate degree program in Political Leadership & Government
- Teaching about various aspects of “Government” and “Governance”
- First year on-campus learning and second-year off-campus training

The School of Government was initiated in 2005, a time when politics was not considered to be a good career option. We strongly believe that the educated youth with professional training can make an impact at the societal level by joining politics. Today after engagement of youth in various movements and political issues of the country, we at MIT-SOG have been proven right.

Bringing youth representation in the mainstream of political & social democracy and to impart practical leadership training to prepare them for the future leadership, was the commitment behind establishing this unique school in 2005, known as MAEER's MIT School of Government (now MIT-WPU School of Government, MITSOG). Apart from Electoral politics it provides attractive roles in functional politics, as Political Analyst, Political Strategist, Campaign Manager, Election Consultant, Constituency Manager, Policy & Research Associate, PRO, Social media analyst etc.

This being our 15th year of operation, we are glad to share that we have trained hundreds of youth and are proud to see many of our alumni, holding important positions in public life. We rededicate ourselves to the cause of building a strong political leadership, across levels and political parties. When we at MIT-SOG grow from strength to strength, we know that our political system too benefits, by getting an excellent pool of talent. We wish to strengthen our contribution to our country, in this unique and value adding fashion each moment.

T. N. Seshan, Vishwanath D. Karad and Rahul V. Karad, the moving force and initiators of MIT School of Government, the first school in India & Asia for a career in politics.
