BCS is a mission. It is a journey, initiated by MIT School of Government. Over the last decade we have been endeavouring to motivate youth to uplift the existing image of Indian politics, by bringing in cleaner, better informed and healthier practices into the system. It is indeed gratifying to see that our efforts have borne fruit and several of our alumni are working both at the grassroots and higher levels of politics in India and remain committed to the cause of creating a better India!

IMPORTANT NOTE

Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is an apolitical platform on which student leaders from all ideologies - political, religious, sectarian or otherwise - assemble to voice their opinions. The effort is to sensitize the youth about the ideals of democracy by exposing them to varied views and opinions. The objective is also to sensitize them towards political processes with a view to bringing them into the political mainstream. The Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad also aims to provide a feedback to the government in order to help it formulate policies for the youth and other sectors, by ascertaining the pulse of the people through the medium of youth.

Thus, Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is the perfect reflection of democracy in full function, irrespective of political, religious, sectarian or any other ideologies.

MIT School of Government, (MIT-SOG) Pune, was founded in 2005. It is the first of its kind to be set up in not only India but also Asia that imparts leadership training to educated youth of India desirous of making a career in Politics and Government. In last 15 years of successful operations we having trained hundreds of youth are proud to see many of our alumni holding important positions in public life. When we at MIT-SOG grow from strength to strength, we know that our political system too benefits, by getting an excellent pool of talent.

We expanded the canvas of MIT School of Government in 2011, by creating a separate platform and brought out classroom training to the thousands of common youth through the innovative platform, Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. BCS represents a non-partisan and independent platform. Through its annual national conclave, the platform is transforming the outlook of thousands of youth and reaffirming their respect for politics, political leaders, democracy and its institutions.

VISION

To create most ethical, spirited and competent public leadership in the country, which will shape our policies, make our democracy vibrant and bridge the chasm between the way we are being governed today and the way we want to be governed.

MISSION

To initiate the very spirit of student politics in the youth of today and inculcate public spirited and socially sensitive values right during their formative years. We aim to raise the extent of sensitivity, awareness, involvement, responsiveness, access and say of youth in political and democratic processes so that a healthy democratic system is evolved. Such a system will then produce competent public leaders and policy makers, from the grassroots and from all walks of life.

I am elated today to see Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad celebrate its 10th milestone year. The Great Noble Son of India Swami Vivekananda had said "Union of Science and Spirituality alone will bring peace to the mankind," and today my belief in these words has only grown stronger. All the student leaders who had assembled at the 10th milestone year of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad from across the nation are partaking your Rashtra Dharma, as you are the initiators of new age India. You gathered to gain knowledge from the leaders and that shows your commitment to your country. You must have taken inspiration from these leaders and philosophers and subsequently you must spread this by motivating and encouraging your peers whom you will interact with later. Only then will your journey to New Delhi and attending the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad will prove to be successful.

When our country mother India celebrates diamond jubilee, 75th Independence Day of India, I am only reminded of my own duty, and duty of BCS, and men who have great concern of making this country very unique country in this world. Perform your duty; duty towards mother, father and the family and the society, the nation and the whole world- Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam. You are the hope and faith of thousands of Indians and it you who will bring in clean politics to India.

From this moment onwards we have to create new image for the India that we hope to see in the future. Through our continued and dedicated efforts we have to ensure that our country India emerges as a knowledge code of the world- Vishva Guru. I appeal to you to keep this word.

Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (Indian Student Parliament) – A Seed Thought

“The time is more relevant than ever for the educated youth to come forward to shoulder the responsibility of leadership in public life. Unfortunately, majority of them still shy away from politics. We have to change the picture.”

Rahul V. Karad

Founder Convener, Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (Indian Student Parliament)

The 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad has given such an immense boost to my confidence in the youth of India. To see student leaders travel from various parts of the country, to engrossingly participate at this conclave for four days at Vigyan Bhavan New Delhi, only expands my belief that the youth of India are leaving no stone unturned to elevate their faith, knowledge and confidence, and equipping themselves to take the reins of leadership when the occasion arrives.

I think that in the history of India, grooming the youth for future leadership roles and for assuming public life has never happened in such a unique, conscious and structured manner. When we started this concept of School of Government, the first School in the country to train future political leaders, people ridiculed us. Today I have contentment and the satisfaction that in the last 15 years in this country, MIT School of Government and Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad have played very important role in creating a national asset in the form of youth and you can all witness the journey having become a youth movement.

The MIT School of Government (MIT-SOG) was started with the strong belief that the educated youth with professional training could make an impact at the societal level by joining politics. We started the School at a time when politics was not looked up as a career choice. Now after 15 years of tireless efforts, our belief stands vindicated and MIT-SOG still remains as one of its kind in India and Asia, imparting Two Year, Full Time, Masters Program in Political Leadership & Government (MPG), a professional program for developing democratic leadership and a career in Politics and Government. The School further expanded its vision and canvas in 2011 and brought out classroom training to the thousands of common youth through Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (BCS).

Over the decade, BCS has become a contributor in the distribution of opportunities. In 2017, the Lok Sabha conducted the National Conference of Women Legislators, which subsequently led to the creation of an even bigger platform in 2017 by us- the National Women's Parliament. This mission was initiated by MIT School of Government in association with the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly & Government of Andhra Pradesh in Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh. Later the National Teachers' Congress drew in more attention and three national-level conclaves of NTC have been conducted successfully, connecting 3000+ teachers and 10000+ students from all over India. The Kerala Legislative Assembly as part of its celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of the Kerala Legislative Assembly organized the Festival on Democracy, with the National Students Parliament which was held in collaboration with MIT-SOG & BCS and became the highlight of this festival of democracy.

Over the last 10 years, many stalwarts from the fields of politics, academics, spirituality among many others have shared their thoughts on the platform of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, inspiring thousands of young leaders across the nation. They in their turn have taken this movement forward in their respective states. Today, the platform has established its credibility not only in India but across the globe with support and encouragement flowing from all over the world. Many important democratic organizations of global governance have termed BCS as an exceptional model for the entire world, but I would still say we have many miles to go.

JAI HIND! JAI BHARAT!

MESSAGE

PRESIDENT

We are proudly witnessing the great strides made by the Indian youth in several spheres of activities. But the youth has been shying away from socio-political responsibilities today. The challenge is to get the youth involved in building the future India, which is their India, which will script their own future.

In this context, I consider the success of the Indian Student Parliament (Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad) as an important milestone in today's socio-political environment of India. Indeed, the MIT School of Government has done remarkably well by drawing an overwhelming response from the student community by holding the first ever Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad in Pune. The event drew a wide appreciation from the Indian youth. Further, this brought the youth, the decision makers, eminent members of the civil society, corporate leaders and senior political leaders on one common platform.

I would like to applaud the bold, dynamic and visionary leadership of Rahul Karad. From concept to execution, he leads from the front. I must also appreciate the commitment of Government of Maharashtra, as shown by its genuine support of the idea as well as the event.

I am confident that if we mobilize the student leaders all over the country, instill confidence in them, create a social awakening, then India will be on the move to occupy a top seat at the table in the Comity of Nations as the 21st century unfolds.

I extend my heartiest greetings for the successful conduct of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad.

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN

During our freedom struggle the idea of 'Nai Talim' was contemplated by Mahatma Gandhi and his close associates. The purpose was to integrate academic learning with external environment. At a higher level, the scheme stimulated students' awareness about the surrounding issues and empathy about it and initiated their preparation for social commitment.

The concept could not gain enough ground, but its relevance remains everlasting. And especially in today's times, when educational system has become so career-oriented, compartmentalizing the society and rendering individuals as isolated units in themselves. Instead of bringing people together it has created walls and distances among them.

Consequently, there is apathy among the students about the serious issues in the society and lack of concern for the marginalized population. This self-centric education can't create leaders and activists.

This state of affairs needs major churning. Fortunately, the initiative by MIT School of Government to organize the Indian Student Parliament deserves appreciation. It will help percolating the social bonds and commitment and inspire students for action. Its motto 'Inspiring Youth For Strengthening Democracy' is greatly symbolic in the sense that time has come for the action of youth. I extend all my wishes for its success.

She is the iconic figure of Myanmar's historic fight for democracy against the military junta that ruled the country for many years. She had addressed the Indian Students Parliament on video during its third edition.

IN QUEST OF DEMOCRACY...

“Parliament is about discussion and debate. Through discussion and debate conflicts can be resolved without violence”

“Parliament is about discussion and debate. Through discussion and debate conflicts can be resolved without violence”

For over two decades, Ms Suu Kyi underwent numerous hardships. In honour of her dedicated and devoted quest for peace and democracy, she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1991. She has also been conferred with the Sakharov Prize for Freedom of Thought in 1990 and Jawarharlal Nehru Award for International Understanding in 1992, among other international recognitions.

Ms Suu Kyi addressed the gathering of 3rd Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad on 10th January 2013. Given below is an extract of her message.

“Parliament is about discussion and debate. Through discussion and debate conflicts can be resolved without violence. Some violence seems to have taken place in some parliaments but one would say these are aberrations rather than staunch conflicts. These can arise from singularity as well as from differences.

Please use this opportunity for discussion and debate to find out how you can make enduring values lost and how you find more values that will give hope to all of us who are living in the world that aims out to reach out to us from day to day.”

Malala Yousufzai is the icon of the young world, particularly for the girls promoting the cause of women's education even while living in a very hostile environment and after having almost lost her life for the cause. Her speech was showcased during the inaugural session of the 4th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad.

Bharatiya chhatra sansad congratulates Malala yousafzai for winning the nobel Peace prize 2014 and extends best wishes for All her future endeavours.

“Thank you so much for inviting me, I am really sorry that I am not there, but it's a great opportunity to talk to Youth, the new generation. It is very important that the youth takes part in politics because the youth is the one who is going to be the future of tomorrow and for the country's prosperity and development, so it is necessary to be in politics.

I want to be in politics because I think it is the better way to work for education, work for the women's rights and for the development of my country. I truly and truly support all of you that join politics and work in politics because you are working for your country, for the people living in your country and your role is also important.”

Thank you so much.

METHODOLOGY ADOPTED FOR BHARATIYA CHHATRA SANSAD

1. Conduct of Session:

Academic Sessions are based on various themes which reflect the important issues facing India/World currently. The sessions are initiated by the Vice Chancellors. Four student leaders express their views on the given topic before any other speaker so that they are not influenced, pressurized or burdened by the views of the other speakers. The Speakers of state assemblies speak next for 10 minutes. Adarsh Yuva Vidhayak Samman (Ideal Young MLA Honor) are given to two young MLAs. This is followed by speeches by Eminent Speakers who speak for 20 minutes each, followed by Q & A session. The Resolutions are put to voting towards the end of the session. This is the general methodology followed for all 8 sessions, while allowing for last minute alterations as per the demands of the situation.

2. Vice Chancellors:

The Vice Chancellors are amongst the most esteemed constituents of Bharatiya Chhatra/Yuva Sansad. They have the honour of putting forth their views at the beginning/concluding of each session.

3. Student Speakers:

A fair selection methodology is adopted while selecting the students who speak as representatives of the students during each session. A selection panel is formed comprising of faculty and other experts, who review the VCDs/DVDs received from those registered students who wish to speak on the given topic. The criteria adopted for selection is relevance of topic, content of speech, body language, confidence level etc. Based on this, the shortlisted students have to perform before the selection panel before the start of the Conclave. 4 to 6 students who excel in the above mentioned criteria are finally selected to speak during each session.

4. Aadarsh Yuva Vidhayak Samman (Ideal Young MLA):

The practice of awarding the Adarsh Yuva Vidhayak was started during the 3rd Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. In each session, one or two young MLAs are felicitated for following sound democratic and parliamentary practices in their constituency.

5. Assembly Speakers:

The Speakers of all Legislative Assemblies of India are intimated about the conduct of the Conclave well in advance. Invitations are sent to selected Speakers to be the Chairpersons of the sessions. Usually, the Speakers of assemblies not represented in the earlier editions of BCS are invited to occupy the Chair.

6. Higher Education Minister:

Higher Education Ministers of different states of India give Inaugural Address at each academic session.

7. Main Speakers/Eminent Speakers:

Very eminent personalities from various fields like Politics, Media, Entertainment, Judiciary, Corporate, Bureaucracy etc are invited as Main Speakers or Keynote Speakers for each session. At times, more than one Main Speaker is invited depending upon the subject of discussion and the availability of the eminent personality.

8. Felicitation:

Felicitation of guests is a deep-rooted Indian tradition. At BCS, we have imbibed this tradition as a mark of respect to every contribution of every individual. The eminent speakers and other dignitaries along with student speakers are felicitated with a shawl and a memento.

9. Q & A Session:

Participating Students send in their questions on a printed format to the volunteers allotted for each seating block. The volunteer collects these questions and sends them to the selection committee present near the dais. The committee examines the relevance of the questions and selects an optimum number of questions depending upon the time available, but usually not less than 4. As the Q&A session starts, each selected student's name is announced who then goes to a podium kept beside each block and asks the question to the eminent speaker of the session.

10. Lifetime Achievement Award:

Lifetime Achievement Award is conferred on an eminent personality belonging to diverse fields like politics, media, literature, art and culture etc. whose lifelong work has contributed significantly to promoting democratic values in the society and the country in general. It is conferred during the Inaugural Session.

11. Ideal Legislative Assembly Speaker / Ideal Legislative Council Chairman Award

This award is conferred upon The Speaker / Chairman of the State Legislative Assembly or Legislative Council in recognition of his/her outstanding work in conducting proceedings of State Legislative Assembly / Council & for Promoting the Best Legislative Practices in the State.

12. Aadarsh Mukhyamantri Puraskar:

The Aadarsh Mukhyamantri Puraskar is conferred upon an outstanding Chief Minister of an Indian state for his/her path-breaking work in the development of his/her respective state and for the greater good of society at large.

13. Gargi and Maitreyee Samman:

Gargi and Maitreyee Samman are given to two outstanding women parliamentarians during Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. These are named after two ancient Indian women scholars, whose wisdom and knowledge was comparable with some of the finest female sages and scholars of that time. The research team gathers information on all the women parliamentarians and then selects the MPs after careful consideration of their achievements and the kind of work carried out by them in their constituencies for promotion of Parliamentary practices & women empowerment.

14. Aadarsh Yuva Adhyatmik Guru Samman:

In India, it is a heartening factor that there are many spiritual leaders belonging to the younger generation also. This is a clear indicator that the Indian youth is not devoid of spirituality. These young spiritual leaders or Yuva Adhyatmik Gurus, who have made a mark on the society by bringing in positivity are considered eligible for this Award, which also encourages them to carry on with this task as a mission.

15. Ucca Shikshit Aadarsh Yuva Sarpanch Samman (Highly Educated Ideal Youth Sarpanch Award):

This award is given to a highly educated young sarpanch of a village, who despite being highly educated prefers to serve his/her village.

16. Heroes of India:

The Heroes of India Award is conferred upon young achievers of India in various fields who have overcome various odds and difficulties in order to achieve the pinnacle of success, in their lives.

17. Krishi Yoddha Samman:

The Krishi Yoddha Samman is conferred upon a dedicated and committed farmers' leader who has spent his/her lifetime in fighting for the just cause of the farmers of India.

18. Vijigishu Chhatra Sangh Netrutva Samman (Winning Student Wing Leadership Award):

This Award is presented to the leaders of the youth wings of various political parties at the national and regional levels, who have made a mark on national students' politics as well as on student council leaders of various universities. This award is not necessarily given every year.

19. Best Student Speaker Award:

Five students from among all the student speakers who have performed outstandingly during the sessions are selected for this award. The selection is done by an ad hoc panel consisting of office-bearers of Bharatiya Chhatra/Yuva Sansad Foundation convened for this period.

20. Bell of Democracy:

This is a bell made of brass mounted on a steel stand. The ringing of this bell symbolically reaffirms our faith in the continuance and strengthening of democracy in the country. It is rung during the Inaugural, Valedictory and Academic Sessions by the dignitaries on the dais.

21. Ekta Sutra:

Ekta Sutra is the Bond of Unity, which signifies the coming together of all the student and youth leaders of India in a show of solidarity and oneness for nation building. All the participants and personalities on the dais tie short pieces of string together to form a long, unbroken chain of unity, reaffirming their faith in the unity and integrity of India. This ceremony takes place at the end of the Valedictory Session, signifying the end of the conclave.

22. Release of Balloons:

Tri-coloured balloons are released in the sky at the hands of the invited dignitaries before the Inaugural Session commences. This act symbolically signifies to the entire country that an important event is about to take place for the strengthening of democracy in India.

23. Oath:

An oath is administered to the participants, in which they reaffirm their faith in the unity of India and pledge to work diligently to strengthen the democracy of the country. It is usually (but not necessarily) administered by a spiritual leader who is invited as an Eminent Speaker for one of the academic sessions.

24. Resolutions:

At the end of each session, a relevant resolution on the topic discussed is proposed, which is sent to the various decision-making authorities if passed by a majority by the participants. The voting options are 'Yes' and 'No'. It is displayed on the screen in the auditorium and the participants vote via SMS.

MESSAGETHE HON'BLE VICE PRESIDENT OF INDIA

भारत के उप-राष्ट्रपति के निजी सचिव
PRIVATE SECRETARY
TO THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF INDIA

M. VENKAIAH NAIDU

When I see all of you in front of me, the future of India is safe in your hands - I am quite confident about the same. I request all of you to do hard work, believe in what you understand, try to practice it and then you will definitely become a good leader. One day, the world, the country and the community around you will definitely recognize you. This is what life has taught me. The ballot is more powerful than the bullet. If you defeat somebody by bullet, he will die, but the ideology will remain. If you defeat somebody by ballot, then there will be a rethinking of that ideology.

MESSAGE

THE HON'BLE PRIME MINISTER OF INDIA

मुझे प्रसन्नता है कि पांचवें भारतीय छात्र संसद का आयोजन पुणे में 10 से 12 जनवरी, 2015 तक किया जा रहा है।

निश्चित ही, संसद हमारी लोकतांत्रिक प्रणाली का आधार स्तम्भ है। छात्र संसद का आयोजन युवाओं में लोकतंत्र और संसदीय प्रक्रियाओं के प्रति रुचि बढ़ाने के लिए एक सार्थक प्रयास है।

छात्र संसद की सफलता के लिए सभी आयोजकों एवं प्रतिभागियों को शुभकामनाएं।

(नरेन्द्र मोदी)

नई दिल्ली
10 जनवरी, 2015

I am happy to note that the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is being organized in Pune. Certainly, Parliament is the pillar of our democratic system. Organizing Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is a welcome effort to inspire the youth towards taking interest in democracy & parliamentary practices. I wish the organizers the very best for the success of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad.

MESSAGE

I am pleased to know that the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad organised by the MIT School of Government at Vigyan Bhavan in Delhi from the 20th to 23rd of February 2020 was a great success.

It is indeed gratifying to note that the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad launched in the year 2011 has emerged as a strong platform where youths from across the country can discuss and deliberate upon the problems faced by Indian democracy and also find plausible solutions.

It is estimated that during the year 2020, India will become the world's youngest country with 64 per cent of its population in the working age group. In order to benefit from this demographic dividend, the government is striving to transition from Youth Development to Youth – led development. I understand that this year 1800 student leaders from across the nation attended the conclave.

I congratulate the MIT School of Government, and more particularly Founder Shri. Rahul Karad for the successful conducting of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad and wish the organizers all success in their future endeavours.

(Bhagat Singh Koshyari)

MESSAGE - PATRONFORMER CHIEF MINISTER, GOVT. OF MAHARASHTRA

Mantralaya
Mumbai 400 032

20th January 2019

MESSAGE

It is indeed commendable that Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, Pune, has emerged as a national platform for the youth of India since it was inception in 2011. As the Chief Patron of this purposeful platform, it is heartening to witness the plant of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, Pune, turning into a banyan tree in its 9th year. I wanted to address the young minds today personally but some other occupancy has prevented me from taking this opportunity.

It is not very common that thousands of youth from different corners of India traveling across to actively participate at a meaningful platform like Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. This is a good sign for our democracy and this is what was envisioned by our leaders and the Government to integrate maximum number of youth in the process of nation building.

For India to emerge as a politically astute and democratically secure country, it is imperative that its policy makers are well informed and clued up about the past, present and future requirements. It is indeed a great satisfaction that Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad provides opportunity to the university students to speak their thoughts and voice their opinion about the political happenings in the country and the required changes. Also, as they interact with those who are already a part of the political system they stand to gain the perspective, which will benefit them and the country in the long term.

I am sure that with its focused efforts Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad will continue to channelize the energy of the youth in the right direction and will encourage them to take active part in politics and enter public life.

I am confident that Shri. Rahul V. Karad, the Founder of this platform, will continue to exhibit similar determination and conviction in his nation building activities.

I extend my warm wishes to the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad and all the young students participating in the 3 day of engaging discourse.

António Guterres

Secretary-General,
United Nations Organization

Ban Ki-moon

Then Secretary-General,
United Nations Organization

We appreciate your kind invitation. Nevertheless, allow me to take this opportunity to convey best wishes for the success of the event.

“ You are part of the largest generation of young people our world has ever known. We must work together to help young people make the most of their energies, ideas and leadership potential. ”

I am pleased to send my greetings to all the young people gathered for the Indian Student Parliament. You gather at a time of profound turmoil, transition and transformation. Insecurity, inequality and intolerance are spreading around the world. Governments are wasting vast and precious funds on deadly weapons while reducing investments in people. Too many people in power seem wilfully blind to the threat of climate change.

India is at a pivot point in its own history. In many ways, it faces the classic dilemma of a middle-income nation. On the one hand, we see India as the rising global power. On the other hand, India faces many of the challenges of a developing nation. For both these Indias, great opportunity awaits.

This is an era of great uncertainty, but also one of profound opportunity. No single leader, country or institution can do everything. But each of us, in our own way, can do something. Together, as partners, we can meet today's tests and seize the opportunities of an era of dramatic change.

Please accept my best wishes for a rewarding gathering.

Jan Eliasson

Former Deputy Secretary General, United Nations Organization

“The Parliament’s theme, “Inspiring Youth, Strengthening Democracy,” and objectives are very much aligned with the Secretary-General’s five year action agenda for youth.”

I commend the Indian Student Parliament for providing this important platform that will help prepare youth for the future leadership of India and for having brought together so many perspectives to address important challenges that youth are facing. The Parliament’s theme, “Inspiring Youth, Strengthening Democracy,” and objectives are very much aligned with the Secretary-General’s five year action agenda for youth. My congratulations on the successful outcome of the event

Irina Bokova

Then Director - General, UNESCO, Paris

“Let me commend this initiative of the MIT-SOG Pune, India. Everywhere I travel I am inspired by the energy and the commitment to change that comes from young people.”

Let me commend this initiative of the MIT School of Government, Pune, India. Everywhere I travel I am inspired by the energy and the commitment to change that comes from young people. Young people are one billion strong in the world. They carry a billion hopes for a better world. The year 2011 will be remembered as the year the young people decided to take the torch of human dignity and speak up for human rights. It resulted in an unprecedented movement for democracy, justice and peace. Young people must be considered as actors for change and not simply as beneficiaries. They are already changing the world; they are enriching the culture and media. It is the role of UNESCO to give them the skills and tools to do so in ways that strengthen the ties between cultures that protect human rights and fundamental freedoms. Quality education is the starting point. If we combine the hopes of youth with quality education, there is nothing we cannot achieve. This is where UNESCO will continue to fight, to provide each and every girl and boy with everything they need to share their ideas and act on them. Indian Students Parliament is another unique opportunity for you to debate ideas in a democratic spirit, to envision ways to make the world a better place. Be imaginative, generous and ambitious. As your great Mahatma Gandhi put it be the change you want to see in the world. You are not only the leaders of tomorrow, you are the leading actors of today.

I wish you every success in your discussions.

Martin Chungong

Secretary General, Inter Parliamentary Union (IPU)
(Union of Parliaments of 163 Nations Geneva, Switzerland)

“Without young people in politics, democracy is incomplete and policies cannot be properly articulated, well designed and fully implemented.”

Dear participants to the ISP, Namaste! I would like to congratulate you on your considerable enthusiasm in participating in this magnificent event that gathers young people from all corners of India, the world's largest democracy. I would like to commend in particular, Mr. Rahul Karad, Founder and Convenor, for his relentless efforts to inspire young people from India to get involved in the public affairs of their country by fostering open debate and dialogue.

Although we may be physically thousands of miles apart, we are united in our common pursuit to ensure youth participation in politics and decision making, which is part and parcel of the IPU's objectives and areas of work.

Dear Students, for those of you who do not know the Inter-Parliamentary Union, the IPU is the world organization national parliaments. Over 170 parliaments are the members of the organization representing more than 6.5 billion people. The IPU promotes democratic parliaments. A democratic parliament is one that is representative, transparent, accessible and accountable, including young people. (Video Message was also conveyed during 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad)

Patricia Scotland

Secretary General,
Commonwealth of Nations

“Such participation and readiness to learn more about how you can offer your talents for the common good and in service of your fellow citizens shows a laudable spirit of public service.”

Having been a parliamentarian and now a Secretary General of Commonwealth, it is a real pleasure to address you at the conclusion of the Indian Students Parliament. I most heartily commend you all for taking part. Such participation and readiness to learn more about how you can offer your talents for the common good and in service of your fellow citizens shows a laudable spirit of public service. I urge you to remember that as well as being citizens of a great nation, India, you are citizens of a great global family of nations, the Commonwealth!

It is striking at such gatherings to see the productive interaction between participants working together, thinking together and learning from one another, whether they represent large and populous nations, small and vulnerable island states, vast economies or fragile, less developed countries. I am sure, you have found that whatever your specialist subject or discipline, and regardless of your personal areas of interest, this time at the students parliament has enriched your understanding of the value of discussion and debate and deepened your appreciation of the perspectives others contribute.

My Best Wishes for the Success of the conclave and commend the work you and all involved in convening the 10th annual conclave Indian Student Parliament are doing to deepen understanding of and adherence to the Commonwealth priorities of Democracy and Development.

Anders B. Johnsson

Former Secretary General, Inter Parliamentary Union (IPU) Union of Parliaments of 163 Nations
Geneva, Switzerland

“ You are not the world’s first student parliament, you are probably not the world’s oldest one either, but I dare say that you might well be the world’s largest one because you belong to the country which has the world’s largest democracy. ”

I am very humbled as I sit here and I see you through my screen. I am very honored and pleased to have this opportunity to talk to India’s upcoming leaders who are gathered here in MIT campus in Pune for the 3rd Indian Student Parliament. You are not the world’s first student parliament, you are probably not the world’s oldest one either, but I dare say that you might well be the world’s largest one because you belong to the country which has the world’s largest democracy.

I was curious to see in your program you are discussing and encouraging young people like yourself to be a part of the political processes. I do think that it is extremely important that you do take part and that you take your own responsibility in politics. I have said that in our organization we deal with the issues of the society, this is very important issue for society and we welcome it.

I have a great feel of admiration for what you all are trying to do.

Kamalesh Sharma

Former Secretary General,
Commonwealth of Nations

“ We welcome your efforts to train and encourage your active participants in the democratic processes. ”

It is a pleasure to greet you as you assemble for the Indian Student Parliament. We say that the heart of democracy beats in our parliaments. The admirable aims of this exercise of inspiring youth and strengthening democracy correspond with the value we try to promote in the Commonwealth.

I would encourage you to join with those of your fellow students throughout our worldwide family by participating in the Commonwealth Student Body. We welcome your efforts to train and encourage your active participants in the democratic processes.

You are sure to find participation in the 3rd Indian Student Parliament a rewarding experience and I wish you all joy and success in your deliberations and your debates.

Jarvis Matiya

Secretary General,
Commonwealth Parliamentary Association

“ India’s young population is its most valuable asset, the young people as a future of the Commonwealth. ”

It is also great to see organizations like the MIT University working to strengthen democracy through a forum like this one. As you know the CPA is a voice of parliamentary democracy across the Commonwealth and has been for over a century since its establishment in 1911, promoting a parliamentary development and up skilling members of parliament. It brings together 70000 or over parliamentarians from 180 legislatures across the Commonwealth. As the largest democracy in the world, India which is one of the fastest growing economies in world, today it is home to a seventh of the world’s youth. Half of which population is under 25 and a quota is below the below the age of 14. India’s young population is its most valuable asset, the young people as a future of the Commonwealth. As such India has a long recognized the importance of young people to the future of Commonwealth society.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE 10th BHARATIYA CHHATRA SANSAD

Session 1 : Learn Before You Lean - Following Social Media & Celebrities

We, the participants of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, hereby pledge to follow and use the social media responsibly. BCS also resolves that all stakeholders mandated with imparting education be requested to incorporate social media awareness as a part of curriculum at secondary level and further propose to spread the awareness through civil society organizations at all levels.

Session 2 : Caste to Class or Class to Caste: Where are we really moving?

We, the participants of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, resolve to eliminate caste prejudices and affirm to dismantle caste driven localities in villages of India and further appeal to the government to make economic status as sole criteria for reservation.

Session 3 : Combating Terrorism, Insurgency & Naxalism: Causes & Challenges

We, the participants of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, resolve to request the United Nations to conclude the comprehensive convention on international terrorism that proposes to criminalize all forms of international terrorism and deny the finances, arms and safe havens for terrorist groups.

Session 4 : Leaping to 5 Trillion Economy : Chances & Challenges

We, the participants of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, resolve to request the government, to expand export promoting infrastructure including R&D to make Indian products globally competitive. We further resolve that the government should invest in rural capital formation facilitating improvement in rural roads, rural credit and social safety net, which help in increasing farmers' income.

Session 5 : A Billion & Still Growing : Has Hum 2 - Hamare 2 Worked?

We, the participants of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, resolve to appeal the government to enact a law restricting number of children to two per family, and further urge the government to incentivise one child family in taxes and other social benefits.

Session 7: India & Emerging World Order

We, the participants of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, firmly believe that India deserves a permanent seat in the reformed United Nations Security Council and appeal to the government to make all necessary efforts to achieve it by 75th year of India's independence.

SESSION 8: India in the Mirror : A Timeline of 7 Decades

We, the participants of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, resolve to appeal the Government of India, to organize a conference for Members of all the State Legislative Assemblies to create a platform, to deliberate upon Good Governance Practices and empower them for Constituency Development.

Valedictory:

We, the participants of the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, resolve to appeal the Union Ministry of Human Resources & Development, to create a framework of imparting training on functioning of Indian Democracy and Political Leadership in the curricula of the Higher Secondary School education.

Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad - Indian Student's Parliament is the biggest classroom of India to develop the India's future politicians with a difference. In last 9 years 1000 thought leaders Presidents, Chief Ministers, Governors, Education Ministers, Corporate Leaders, Spiritual leaders have guided this Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad platform. Today we have directly touched 80 thousand Student Leaders and over millions of students indirectly through this Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. This number is a true reflection of the wide acceptance of our idea of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad my dear students. 450 such political platforms have been established now in the country in states like Gujarat, Bihar among others. I also would like to say that Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad platform is helping in a big way to the various political parties of India to decide their future vision and action.

Today I feel that this is the only way for making India the strongest and the greatest democracy in the world. Once again I convey my respect for the dais and Honorable Vice President of India who blessed the MIT School of Government and Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad since its inception. I welcome you once again Sir and all the dignitaries on the dais and lastly my beloved students from different parts of the country.

“The number of students attending Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is a true reflection of the wide acceptance of our idea of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad.”

INSPIRING YOUTH, STRENGTHENING DEMOCRACY

10th BHARATIYA CHHATRA SANSAD

ADDRESS BY

Prof. Dr. Vishwanath D. Karad

Founder President, MIT World Peace University,
Founder Executive President, WPC,
MAEER's MIT Group of Institutions

When our country mother India celebrates diamond jubilee, 75th Independence Day of India, I am only reminded of my own duty, and duty of BCS, and men who have great concern of making this Mother India very unique country in this world. In 1893 Swami Vivekanand had said religion is nothing but to preform duty, duty towards mother, father and the family and the society, the nation and the whole world - Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam. I would like to appeal to all on this occasion. What are your and my liabilities? What will be the BCS's liability? From this moment onwards we have to create new image for Mother India. 21st century is for Mother India and in this 21st century our Mother India is going to emerge as a knowledge code of the world- Vishv Guru. I appeal to you to keep this word.

“From this moment onwards we have to create new image for Mother India.”

M. Venkaiah Naidu

Vice President, The Republic of India

Today in this auditorium I would like to welcome all the participants' young friends, on the occasion of 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. It has been an honor to present my thoughts in front of you all intellectuals it is been a moment of happiness that thousands of youngsters are taking interest in the politics of our country.

We have to consider every aspect of politics as the mission of our life. Politics was considered as mission and of late people started making this as commission and giving some remission and doing some omission leaving the passion for the nation mission. So now the time has come again for all of us particularly the younger generation to join the politics in a big way. Politics is not only contesting elections. Politics is a part of public life was you take interest in the countries affairs. Be political, be academic, be social, be cultural. All these aspects they require attention by the younger generation.

Politics is a vehicle for serving the people, for bringing about the desired socio economic change. Taking the country to the new levels of development and strengthening the foundation of democracy this is where the young students educate and informed citizens should engage themselves for meaningful democratic politics. I think the youth should be in forefront in terms of the discipline, honesty and total commitment to work. So I will always suggest readers to focus on character, caliber, capacity and conduct.

“ Politics is a vehicle for serving the people, for bringing about the desired socio economic change. ”

IDEAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY SPEAKER AWARDEE

P. Sreeramakrishnan

Speaker, Kerala State Legislative Assembly

It is a very proud moment to be here on the occasion of 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Parishad, which is a vast reservoir of ideas to irrigate the democratic process, the democratic, political landscape of our country. Ever since the conception and fruition of the first BCS, MIT World Peace University has come a long way in innovation, creativity and persistence of purpose in holding this event successfully year after year and now, bringing the spectacle to the national capital for a crowning glory of double digits.

Democracy is a way of life, the magical system of governance, utterly craved by those who denied and divided. It is also system snubbed and maligned by many who are likely to have it. But who use, misuse and abuse it. You should have a political understanding. You should have an idea of India. Idea of India is different. It's an exhibition of symbiosis. It should be an exhibition of cultural symbiosis, that which is formulated in our constituency.

“Democracy is a way of life, the magical system of governance, utterly craved by those who denied and divided.”

The power to make the world better place always comes from the young people. I can see the bricks. 2000-2500 individual young people who are setting here are like bricks but one thing I want to underline here that if these bricks are used to construct walls then it could be a disaster. Bricks each one of you, you should be used, use yourself to construct bridges. Don't make walls between cultures and languages and societies and nationalities you should not be used by anyone to make walls. Take the leadership in your hand and construct bridges every where in the world to unite entire humanity.

Don't look for others do, Don't look for leaders and champions and hero's to come and change the India. You are the makers of New India.

“ Don't make walls between cultures and languages and societies and nationalities. ”

Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR)

First and foremost it's a special privilege to be talking to the future of India. I will begin by saying by the future of the word, future is very important. Somebody has said that I only think about the future because that is where I am going to spend the rest of my life.

I will give you some lessons of my life and give you just 5 lessons. The first lesson is about hard work, second is about purpose, third is about opportunity, fourth is how you could start the day and fifth is how you end up your day. Very simple to remember 5 lessons and all from my book of life.

Purpose and perseverance, if the passion is also combined with purpose then you can have a bigger purpose of life not for yourself not for your family. There has to be a bigger purpose and work on it. Always remember it is too early to quit, quitters are never winners. And winners are never quitters.

“ Always remember it is too early to quit. Quitters are never winners. And winners are never quitters. ”

Shivraj Patil

Former Governor,
Punjab & Administrator, Union Territory of Chandigarh,
Former Speaker, Lok Sabha, Former Union Minister,
Home Affairs, Government of India

We would not like to educate only children but we would like to educate all the citizens of India and I think by attending this conference we who are sitting here quite aged and we are getting educated here also in this conference. We are not able to educate all our children. We are trying to educate them and that is why the government schools have started. Online lectures will be made or by prepared by the best teachers in the world, best in the country and they will be available to repeatedly seen at many times but then is one big thing. But the Karad family has been trying to educate not only children but educated person like me also and I think you will join me and congratulate them for the good work they are doing in this field. I had the opportunity of attending meeting like this organized in Pune.

“ We would not like to educate only children but we would like to educate all the citizens of India. ”

Dr. Vijay P. Bhatkar

Padma Bhushan, Father of PARAM Super Computer of India,
Educationist, Former Chairman, Board of Governors,
IIT Delhi & Chancellor, Nalanda University

This century is extremely important for India. Never before the time has come I think there where the prophetic words of Swami Vivekananda ringing in my ears that in this century again rise, we claim a Glory. Not glory of pride, a glory of wisdom, glory of knowledge and show the part two to the entire word. I think as quantum mechanics tells us that every moment there are infinite possibilities we can go this way, that way and many ways simultaneously. But it is a constant stress, consciousness side path and that we decide our future and schedule our future. I challenge you, I encourage you. Let us develop some clearly innovative solutions. Friends this is the challenge which I think we want to take today and again and again and Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad students inspired and no doubt that India will once again emerge as a great nation of the world.

“ Let us develop some clearly innovative solutions. ”

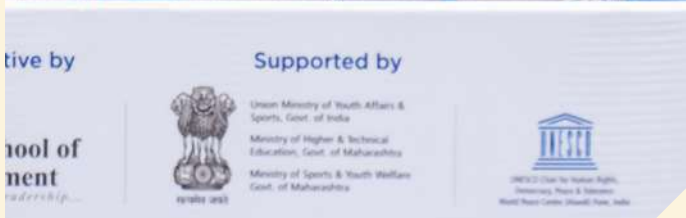

Syed Zakira Ahmed

Student Leader

I would like to thank Shri Rahul Karad ji without whom this particular thing would not have been possible, without his conception and idea who would have been running this Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, the Indian student parliament for last 10 years very successfully? The esteemed invitees who have come all along the way from different parts of India and taken time from their busy schedule we realize that and we highly appreciate that. I am sure all of those who are in present here today might have learnt these lessons. The students from different parts of India and the world your energy is inspiring and gives hope. And everybody present here today I am sure would take back whatever the event has to offer. We are here to understand different perspectives, develop better network and walk back as more refined version of ourselves.

“ We are here to understand different perspectives, develop better network and walk back as more refined version of ourselves. ”

First of all I congratulate this organization for which will help bringing consciousness into the youth of this country and conscious thought process and which will help strengthen the nation. Since morning to night, our youth is using and misusing social media. The craziness of influence or the way we have imbibed social media into our everyday lives and habits has grown tremendously. But what type of generation are we creating today? What kind of a future political social leadership are we looking at? It is of great concern for this great Nation India and for the nations of world.

We need conscious citizens, conscious leaders who would know what to do with its social media implications. I or anyone on this dais cannot describe the fullness of the impact of social media, in literary taking away our heritage from our lives.

“ We need conscious citizens, conscious leaders who would know what to do with its social media implications.”

I thank all dignitaries on the dais and the organizers for the youth parliamentarian award that has been given to me. Also, I want to thank from my heart all the citizens of my constituency with whose blessings and support, I have been able to make headway into politics and have risen from gram panchayat to the lok shabha. I want to give you this message- that we the youth, have to enter politics with strength in our hearts, only then will we be able to change the picture of this country. I would like to read out a few lines that I have written- We shall become that voice that will contribute in the progress of the nation, we shall become such a song, poem and couplet that is appreciated by every citizen.

“ We, the youth have to enter politics with strength in our hearts.”

Through this platform of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, I want to talk to you about something. As we are the youth we are involved in academics. Once we complete our academic pursuits we can think of doing something. Once we complete our academics then we dream of things like whether we want to become an engineer, or a doctor or maybe the collector. But what we should actually think about when we pursue academics is about joining politics and becoming a member of the legislative assembly or a member of the rajya sabha. Only then will we be able to contribute in the progress of our region or our country. With support from the Minister and voters I became a member of the assembly from Kasdol, at a very young age. Therefore, I feel more and more youth should join politics.

“ More and more youth should join politics. ”

It is a subject of course close to my heart to speak on social media threatening democracy.

I am from the print media and if you look at today's technologies it is like riding a bullock cart in the age of supersonic planes is the advent of technology. It is said that the vehicle in which human beings travel doesn't define human beings. Social media is a medium of carrying the messages. It's the medium that keeps changing for different messages.

Now nobody can take away your platform nobody can take away your audiences you can carry your profile and your profession. Same happens with the politicians even if they leave the party but they have their fan followers they carry those followers throughout their journey. So we conclude that the more the communication the more the dissemination of information it is far better for the democracy and for the society.

“ The more the communication, the more the dissemination of information, thus better for the democracy and for the society. ”

In a democracy, education occupies the most important place because only then we can have valuable discussions and arguments. A country can only progress when well informed discussions take place. Also education has occupied a very important place in Indian history. World over India has been acknowledge for the valuable education that it imparts. People come from all across the world to find education in India. Earlier people used to stay in jungles, they did not know how to cook food or wear clothes. All such developments happened due to education. Therefore, to run any democracy successfully its people need to be educated. If in a democracy you get good education and work with a good conscience then you can do a lot of good for the world, you can be a good citizen and do a lot of good work for your country. This perspective leads people to say that the youth have the strength to face challenges.

In 1995 a committee was created whose prime agenda was to take strong steps against cyber crime. Under such circumstances it is reasonable to question that in mere 30 years time what could have been the reasons that gave rise to cyber crimes. Could social media be responsible for it? Now suspicion is generally not without a reason. Under the IT Act 2000 in 2017, 28461 cyber crimes had been reported. The reason for such a large number is not clear. Neither is the reason for social media turning youth into anti socials. Life has become a hashtag, and belief has restricted itself to a screenshot. We give a blue tick to those who have no knowledge of that subject. We are all conscious about physical health but we do not think about mental health. We all want to be on social media all the time even when someone might be losing their life right in front of our eyes.

“ Life has become a hashtag, and belief has restricted itself to a screenshot. ”

Social media is more diverse and powerful than mainstream media because of its nature. When you are uploading a message on social media it reaches people everywhere. You are not confined to any boundary, you are not confined to any ethnic person, you are not confined to any geographical location, you just want to reach out to more and more people that is better and more than better from conventional media. When you are putting the message on conventional media like radio and TV no one can ask questions, no one answers questions. When it comes to social media you have transparency over there. So social media creates that impact on society.

“ Social media is more diverse and powerful than mainstream media because of its nature. ”

In the future everyone will be world famous for 15 minutes. When I saw these words written on the wall I could not quite understand because how I and ever one could else be world famous? To reach the larger audience and send the messages, to me now that old world seems so small. My name is Malkam Jones and I am a student from FU University Amsterdam and I understand these reasons of concern since we live in a society.

When I look around me I see students coming together in this democracy, I see future leaders, scientist, philosophers and I hope in our journey we should go through critical thinking and today we have to take chance to get out of the bubble.

“To reach the larger audience and send the messages, to me now that old world seems so small.”

Whatever we come know, we have to know fact of Thiruvalluvar, this is set by Thiruvalluvar, one of the define phenomena, which is reshaping the world which is worldwide access to the internet, the love child of the internet is the social media which includes blogs, micro blogs, last but not the least is social network. There will be 3.50 billion queues of social media in 2023 and from this 8400 from china and per 50 million are from Indian. Social media has seven billon blocks, has identity, users willingly sharing their identity through facebook and linkedin and they are tied with different identities in different context of social media and platforms. So this will be the identity. I want to conclude with the useful for social media that is cognize, congruity, chase and curator, with this we are students, we have been using and we are experiencing social media in our day to day life. So we have to learn before we learn.

I have been told that the combined strength of all the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad the total strength of the participants has been almost 100000. I congratulate you that you have created 100000 politicians so that in the oncoming years more and more politicians will be ready to take on the responsibilities of the nation. At least 90% of us use a foreign language for signature but I feel that we should use our own language to do so. As I was a student of statistics, whatever I talk starts with data. We talk about the internet. Can you imagine how much internet is used in a minute? In a minute almost 2 crore emails are sent, 2 lakh text messages, 10 lakh facebook calling happens, 38 lakh Google searches happen, 35 lakh YouTube videos are watched, and 7 lakh hours worth of Netflix is watched across the world. Every question has an answer when you wear the thinking cap.

This 10th edition of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is truly deserving of respect and pride. Last year I had met some of the students from MIT-WPU in New Delhi. I was amazed to learn that they are being educated about politics. Till now we had been hearing that people study to become doctors, lawyers but I think this is the only university in the entire world, to bring about a political revolution. I would like tell Karadji that he is not doing this for any particular person's benefit or the University's benefit but for the benefit of the nation. There cannot be a bigger service to the nation than the fact that you are providing a platform for the future leaders. India is changing and you are the reason for this change and I can see the change happening because I have been told that students have come here from 23 states of India. I will reiterate again that you give me the confidence that India's future is bright.

At the onset, I want to congratulate Shri Rahul Karadji because he initiated the political revolution in India almost 11 years ago. One day he came to my house and broached that I envision a new India within the youth of India and I want to initiate Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. I did not imagine that the thoughts and beliefs that he shared with me at the time would emerge into something so big and will play such a vital role in nation building. I also want to say that Shri Rahul Karad's father Shri Vishwanath Karad ji is a spiritual person and when he combines spirituality with academics, education becomes complete. There was a time when India was known to be the Vishwa Guru and today also it is our dream that India once again emerges to become the Vishwa Guru. There is no short cut for this and we need good leaders to show us that path.

“ When Shri Vishwanath Karadji combines spirituality with academics, education becomes complete. ”

You all came from different parts of India. Young, ambitious and who want to serve the nation. I would like to share my experiences that the way how I started my party and I think that my experiences might give you give a different clarity. When I had established Jansena party it was for me. It was national service not for personal recognition, not for power but for change, a change which is needed in our society, in our country which we always wanted.

The political power really disturbs me being a non-change thinker. I was thinking a lot, like should I sit like everyone else? Should I come forward and do something? I thought without any expectation, without seeking power. I want to be a voice of really needy and helpless and so I found Jansena party and there were lot of youngsters.

On the occasion of 10th BCS I want to pay my regards to Shri Vishwanath Karad ji and Shri Rahul Karad ji who have initiated this thought. It is said that the biggest wars of the world are fought with the mind. Therefore, a thought that was initiated 10 years ago has continued and has brought together thousands of youth from across the country, is truly commendable. The topic – Learn before you Lean, requires study, education and information. Also the education has to happen in a planned manner and learning from others' experience. I would like to appeal to the youth to thing big and I expect a lot from you.

When I was your age I used to be a student activist. My NRC activity that time was one of the activities now it is not there so I have lots of experiences about the ideologies but sadly these days in our campuses these debates and discussions are missing on ideologies, your views are missing. I think something is missing because you all people are addicted to social media. See there is good and bad about the social media. Bad thing is you know it is because of the social media the lies travel faster than the truth. You want to domesticate a dog even if it is good suppose some spread the rumor that is a mad dog before people realize that is a good dog or not, it will be killed. That is the bad effect of social media the culprits are blamed. Democracy means the spreading of the truth, not lies.

Experience enhances a man's knowledge but it does not become his attribute. The present times that we are living in need us to think about the future. If you think like a parliamentarian you will be able to see the future. It is important to see the future because we mostly spend our lives in the future. Our first thought should be directed at, what is our aim? How far we are able to see? And most importantly how consistently we are able to work and for how long? This is indeed the most important thing to consider. I have worked with Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee ji. He used to say that it does not matter whether you are sitting on the front seats or the back seats in the parliament. What does matter is how you can influence the parliament with your power, proficiency and intellect. Do I have the power to influence the speaker? This is what matters.

“Experience enhances a man's knowledge but it does not become his attribute.”

I don't think that this award is based on my individual merit or on my personal capacity but I represent all the voters, all the people of my constituency back home in Kerala. They have faith in me from the last 5 years and they don't consider me nearly as their legislative or their representative but they see me as the member of their family and that is the biggest award that I can get from any forum. The only message to all the young students across all the states of the country- I would really urge the youth to come forward and we always talk about four pillars of democracy. I hope that all of us can move forward together in our strife to make our country a better nation.

In Arunachal Pradesh there are 60 constituencies and out of 60 there is 1 constituency, the name is 27 LIROMOBA (ST). For this small constituency is very far away from main area already near the China border. In my constituency there are only 12000 peoples represented for me, but area is very important for me. I visit my area then I will spend at least 2 months. I have 55 places in my constituency. If all places I have touch then I have spent 2 months. So I'm very happy for my constituency for today's felicitation and also today's motivation is very important for me in future work.

When a child is born in our country today, he first comes to know of his caste, then his religion and then his ethnicity. In his entire life he has to face several odds because of casteism. Friends, we all oppose casteism but we do not do anything to eradicate it. Why would anyone want to do it anyway? Just to please 15% of the population why should anyone displease 85% of the population? Earlier we were fragmented into kingdoms and now into political fragments. The piece of wood attached to a hammer or an axe is unaware of the fact that in due time the hammer or the axe to which it is attached is going to sever the tree from where the wood has come. But we need to understand that we are neither the iron of the hammer nor the wood. We are the most precious jewels of this earth and we cannot destroy our inheritance for religion's sake.

“ We cannot destroy our inheritance for religion's sake. ”

Atharva Rajimwale, Chhattisgarh

Friends, the question that we face today is not whether we are moving from class to caste or from caste to class? The question that we should be asking is whether today the society still believes in making factions and judges a person as per his caste and class or his qualities and attributes? As per the Gita, four classes had been identified which were based on the kind of work that was done by a person. In the western world these are known as classes. This classification was done on the basis of financial status, knowledge and education. However, few evil minds in the society gave it a religious outlook and tried to make it work to their advantage. But friends India is changing. Now a king's son does not become a king. Only one who is deserving of becoming the leader is chosen by the people to become the leader.

“ India is changing, Now a king's son does not become a king. ”

Fleur Ter Ellen, Netherlands

I am student from a very small country somewhere in Europe. Here in India I have met friendly people and have seen family houses where they take care of each other and respect each other, in Netherland there is shift in society, where due to reduce of welfare state we need to take real care of each other I think equality is one of the challenge of your country. A country that has the largest democracy of the world but remember democracy is not only about politics it is also about respect to each other and having dialogue between all people in the society, so caste or class.

Use your patience, warmth, openness, spiritual mind to really talk to each other to invite people of every caste every class to speak up to share their opinion to make their voice count.

“ I think you are the one that could make the difference.”

Kiran P. Deshmukh, Maharashtra

During the Lok Sabha elections I witnessed a amusing incident. A man tells his wife to cast her vote for a person who belonged to the same caste, to which the wife retorted “are you voting for a leader or looking for a son-in-law?” but when we elect a leader is it fair to see their caste? I believe in Babasaheb Ambedkar’s thoughts that first there should be equal division of property should be done which will reduce the divide between the poor and the rich and the second is inter-caste marriage. Inter caste marriage will surely severe the roots of casteism. In the fim ‘Rand De Basanti,’ the protagonist says that there are two ways to live life- either we can choose to stay quiet and let things go on, or we can take responsibility. I am responsible as I am young.

“ Inter caste marriage will surely severe the roots of casteism.”

INAUGURAL ADDRESS

K. T. Jaleel

Minister for Higher Education,
Minority Welfare, Hajj and Wakf, Government of Kerala

As we all know ours is a pluralist society. In our population of 1.3 billion there are more than 4635 communities with diverse linguistic, cultural and social background. Religious minorities constitute 19.4 percent of the total population.

The 42nd constitutional amendment added secular to the Preamble in order to emphasize the constitutional value and treat different religious identities at equal. The religious and cultural freedom is to be preserved. In this country people should not be fragmented, separated or sidelined on the basis of religion and caste. To make religion a criteria for a particular right in a country is a draconian attempt and it should be strongly condemned everywhere in the world. Since the pluralism in India is correlated with the balance of power, any imbalance will create internal disturbance. Such a situation will affect everyone in the country. You are the country’s human resource that would guard environment, flame erudition and bridge past and the present. For us you are not only the leaders of tomorrow but the hope of today. My young friends, I wish you all success.

I feel humble to say that I never feel that I am the doer, I am the maker. I come from a very small village of hardly 2000 population. My school used to be in cow shed in the morning, when cows and buffaloes go for grazing. In the evening when cows and buffaloes come back, ringing sound of those bells used to be sign off bell. Unique Individuals come with hope and expectations for the process of nation building. Being a professor of Engineering, I do understand what are particles, physics, IT, computer and artificial intelligence too.

I would say with confidence, I am Vaishnavit. We belong to certain caste. I belong to farmer's family. We are the instruments in the hands of almighty creator and you may believe it or not but we are in search of realization of ultimate truth, the ultimate reality. Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad has been a tremendous commitment for nation building and for the wellbeing of mankind. Rahul and his team have taken lead. It is a good mission to develop and do some work for well being of mankind. They were sages and saints who said the words Vasudaiva Kutumbakam, Ekam sat vipra bahudha vadanti, and so many sayings. I am just an instrument who could do some contribution and I need your support and blessings for the nation building process.

It is indeed I think one of the most important issues that the young must deliberate upon. Somebody commented the other day and said that in our society politicians have let down the young. I can't really say one generation after is responsible for it. Well people expect more from government, they expect more from the people, from politicians, some of who are sitting here expect more from civil society, the young even expect from industry and the young even expect from the entire society to become a vehicle to fulfill the opportunities and provide opportunities and fulfill aspirations. When I see the caste and class divide and many more people like me in this country are worried. Did you get worried? If you have to become the committee of nations, after all this country is about 'Vasudev Kutumbakam', the country that says whole world is my family is now only looking at the small caste, religion. Let's not teach to hate other people's caste and religion the day we start and inculcate in ourselves the societal transformation will begin. I think it's an extremely relevant & compulsive topic and issue that we have touched upon. I have great faith in the young of this country that you have to be the vehicles of this societal transformation.

“ Let's not teach to hate other people's caste and religion.”

Rajesh Patnekar

Speaker, Goa State Legislative Assembly

At the time of independence, in 1947, India was divided in many ways. There were many policies and more than 500 princely states in India. Where also religious and regional divisions were present the most important single division was cast. Though initially the social system of stratification was crystallized in rigid system of racial discrimination, the Indian caste system manifested itself as a vertical structure in which individual castes are created and kept individuals apart and at the same time were linked by the expectations and obligations which integrated them it to a village social system. Throughout the long history of caste systems reformers and great men have raised their voices against the rigidity of the caste system and against the inhuman treatment of the lower caste. I would like to conclude by saying this that the speeches given by the students tells us that in future the day will come where there will be no caste, only one thing that is unity.

“ The Indian caste system manifested itself as a vertical structure.”

I came here about 15 mins ago and I heard various people's thoughts on issues that really hit at the age of our existence in India. Whether its caste class, or other issues that were enumerated. I think many a time all of us get too intrusively emotionally connected to these issues. Where actually the core issue before any nation, any state, any district, any village and any household is a rare issue of leadership rises above carte, leadership rises above class leadership is what changes the world that as we know exists today and that is what the youth of India possess.

Perception is extremely important, and yes it is, but always remember that at the end of the day, you got to be able to look yourself in the mirror. And so for me in life everyday that I hit the bed in the night, I always remember that the softer pillow is always a clear conscience.

“ At the end of the day, you got to be able to look yourself in the mirror.”

CONCLUDING REMARKS

Dr. Fr. Abraham Vettiyankal Mani

Vice Chancellor, CHRIST (Deemed to be) University,
Bengaluru, Karnataka

I have heard your detailed arguments, telling facts and statistics and taking their positions on the theme of caste to class or class to caste where are we really moving. I am not going to summarize all these points. Caste in India has been a cultural category and class is an economic category.

In order to disarticulate caste endogamy has to be overcome. Only Urbanization and its logic of anonymity will help surmount this. The paradox however is that towns and cities provide a certain level of freedom where they can fearlessly and unbiasedly express? This unleashes the wave of caste politics. It changes the attitude to work out caste anxieties which led to competitive caste behaviour. You are the young intelligentsia for a noble cause by being proactive in clearing this trap. Till then caste in India is here to stay. We are trying for world class University, now I appeal for world class citizens of India.

“ In order to disarticulate caste endogamy has to be overcome. ”

Today we are looking for ways to get rid of naxalism. If you want to move forward, then the students who have come here today, the students who represent the nation should be motivated towards the spirit of patriotism even more passionately by the state governments. I think Maharashtra is the first state where higher education has been integrated with education of technology. The youth is the future of the nation and if the future of the nation walks on the correct path then the country will surely progress. While we are talking about terrorism we should also see that cyber crime is also growing. Maharashtra Government has taken two decisions- first is to create a cyber university and the second is to make cyber security a part of the school curriculum. When we integrate technology with eradication of crime, it shall be a check mate situation for crime. Be true to your duties and rights and privileges will come to you in due time.

“Be true to your duties and rights and privileges will come to you in due time”

I feel very glad to see that all those who have assembled here today are eager to serve the nation. For a minute close your eyes and imagine what kind of a country do you want to see? With our service, what kind of a country do we want to create? How do you see the faces, relations, happiness, unity of the people of this country? And what are you ready to do to create such a country? What kind of a country do you want to make? Who saw a country that has peace? I see all the hands are up. Everyone wants a country that is happy, has prosperity, where religion binds us and not becomes a reason for us to fight because religion should bind us. Religion taught us Vasudaiva Kutumbakam. Whether that place is my city, my country or my world it is after all my world. We have to create golden Bharat together.

“ God has created two sides to everything. ”

Thank you everyone! First of all I do not consider myself to be a spiritual guru. I am only a follower on the path of truth. You have called me and showered me with respect for which I am thankful to you! Just now Shri Rahul Karad shared a thought that “we are in the Silicon Valley of spirituality and there is something inside our DNA.” I see around me and I see many students and I continuously and repeatedly hear the sound – right, right, right! The way a cloth is woven with two threads, God has created two sides to everything; good-bad, profit-loss, praise-criticism, respect-disrespect. Similarly much before we claim any right we should be aware of our responsibilities. The way when a fruit ripens, it falls off the tree, the tree does not keep it with itself at all. The fruit is ripe with vitamins and minerals. When you sow the seed of responsibility, when the right time arrives you will get the privilege of your rights.

This is Chatra Sansad --parliament of the student. India today is not only the world's largest democracy but a very vibrant Indian democracy. The the topic which has been chosen for this year is again very important 'combating terrorism insurgency and naxalism' causes and challenges.

In fact for a very long period of time of course there were some receptions but for a very long period of time in women history this was the instrument which was successfully employed to create government organisation. Those who had this advertiser spirit or they were giving by ideas that they are specially chosen people or they have something special to convey, they took it up on themselves. Who so ever had foreseen the picture of command were able to establish the domination and to perpetuate that domination. Do your duty before you lay any claim. India's image is really that of a progressive and developed nation.

My constituency is among the biggest constituencies in India. It is 2400 square kilometers, very less population with population density is 20 per square kilometre. And it has the longest border line with the country where there no border fencing what is the porous border. There is no such mechanism to control the terrorism there, the borders are porous. All operating as a free world, it is very difficult to control. Many people are coming to Delhi. There is no good education system and for job prospects youngster are coming down to Delhi, Maharashtra, Mumbai and other metro cities for jobs. I request all the leaders, political leaders to help my people who are coming from my place. Help them to get good education. We don't have a good infrastructure and education facilities in Manipur.

I feel very happy to see all so many young people sitting here in Vigyan Bhavan, New Delhi today. I can see the names of so many states and it is indeed very encouraging to see so many youth take active interest in the democracy of the country, wherein everyday I find this interest to be diminishing. For this I hold politics to be most responsible. When a man is poor he dislikes the rich and when he becomes rich, he starts disliking the poor. Same applies to politics, when someone climbs the higher rungs of the ladder he cuts of the lower rungs so that others are not able to climb. Therefore, it has become difficult to enter politics and also once you enter there is a lot of struggle. People struggle for even as long as 25 years to be able to prove themselves. I think the problem lies with our country. There should be some changes in our society where there are some linencies for youth who want to make a career in politics.

The Day of 15th August says that "Independence is incomplete, few dreams are still now is to be fulfilled, the oath of Raavi is still incomplete". Terrorism, a violent behavior to fluff an atmosphere of fear in society or in a part of it, to meet political ends the inhumane massacre, reveals the said restrict indulgence of anti-social and human and violence crazed individuals under the false garb of "JEHAD". The activities of Iris Republican Army, LTT in Sri Lanka, and Red army in Japan, Palestine and Guerillas in Israel are instances of terrorism all over the world. The attacks are a wakeup call ... but wakeup to what? A new era of violence, that is inflicted by terrorism even Ravana, the greatest warriors was defeated because his home was hollow, Vibhishana. In the same way our gigantic country is being followed by Naxalism and insurgency. For that reason I say, "Still independence is incomplete...How can I celebrate the exuberance?"

Kamalesh Sonawane, Maharashtra

If we talk about global problems then everyone will talk about terrorism and the country's internal problem is naxalism and revolt. The perpetrators make the poor of the country think that they have still not achieved freedom from poverty and are being abused by the rich. Therefore, the naxalites make the representatives of the government, politician and other government officials their target. Naxalites live because of the support that they get from the local inhabitants. Army personnel are not given correct information about the naxalites. To counter naxalism it is important to construct an all encompassing rural development program under which the inhabitants of rural areas should be provided modern amenities such as electricity, roads, water, irrigational support etc. Alongside this, there should be a proper representative system for the tribals so that they do not feel under represented.

“ To counter naxalism it's important to construct an all encompassing rural development program.”

Dr. Surjya Narayana Patro

Speaker, Odisha State Legislative Assembly

When we talk about terrorism in our country, we can see two types of terrorism growing very rapidly; first one is based on the religion even it is found in Australia. Every other place in the world is facing religion fanaticism. View about three pillars still server our democracy first legislature, second judiciary and third is executive all of these three parallel work. The Supreme Court has handed the direction to the speaker of the Parliament that the powers which have been allotted to the speakers you have to remove them, it must go to the another judicial body and all the speakers of the Parliament have sent the direction that how to sort out this problem. The power is now being given to the legislative. Our democracy is very strong democracy because we have a very strong democracy. I am sorry but the revolution which Maowadi has done throughout the world was successful but it was not suitable to Indian soil and in India we are successful in democracy. We got our independence only due to the efforts taken by Gandhi's non violence so we should follow that.

“In India we are successful in democracy.”

Friends, for the past few years our country has beaten even France and is fast emerging to be a developing nation. It has been progressing economically. But when we look at the size and potential of India we cannot appreciate the progress made thus far. So, keeping this data in mind our policy makers have developed an economic plan for the next five years that is till 2024. Our country has a huge target ahead of it. When the target is huge, one has to face numerous challenges. At the same time it also brings numerous opportunities. Friends today 50% of India's population is involved in agriculture. Therefore, the farmers need to be encouraged. I implore the policy makers that they be paid a fair price for their produce. I am sure that there will be a day when India will emerge to be the strongest economy in the world. We all have to move together towards this goal.

“The farmers of India need to be encouraged.”

Ankit Dokania, Punjab

We are fools to think of 5 trillion dollar GDP. Friends, there was a time when India could feed its population. But now we face times when due to a fall in the automobile sector, 18000 youth have been left without jobs. They are unable to even get their old parents treated in hospitals. There was a time, when India sang to the tune of Vasudaiva Kutumbakam. But now India spends 33% from its coffers to safeguard its borders and 7% to 9% to create balance in nature. Then I am forced to say that 5 trillion dollar seem quite far fetched. This has no link to reality. Simultaneously, I am also reminded that India is responsible for 18% of the world's population. When there is talk of pollution then on this auspicious day of Mahashivratri, I would like to pray to the almighty and ask him to stop all this.

“There was a time when India could feed its population.”

Greetings to all and especially to the young student leaders who shall be showing the path to a populace of 130 crore people of India. Friends our Finance Minister Mrs. Nirmala Sitaraman had announced that India shall become a 5 Trillion Dollar Economy in 2024. But what is a trillion dollar economy? Is it just a golden dream wherein we just lose our senses? Should we just forget recession and hunger that are prevalent in the country? Industries have shut down. More than 15000 companies are facing lockdown, which has led to 10,00,00 people losing their jobs. Last year just due to recession in the auto sector almost 250000 people lost their jobs. Friends, this is the maximum number of joblessness that we are witnessing in the last 45 years. Having witnessed these scenarios I want to ask- do we need dreams right now or do we need concrete policies that will help us overcome these challenges?

“Should we just forget recession and hunger that are prevalent in the country?”

Muskan Katoch, Punjab

The party to win by a large number of votes, the BJP works as per its planned agenda. And it was as per one of their agenda's that it was mentioned that in the next 5 years India shall attain a 5 trillion dollar economy. If we consider this in rupees then it amounts to 350 lakh crore rupees. As per some economists this is an impossible figure to achieve. On the other hand some economists believe that if other countries can achieve it then we too can. If we look at history then it was in 2007 that India attained the 1 trillion dollar economy for the first time. But it took almost 7 years to reach the 2 trillion dollar mark and today we have reached the 2.7 trillion dollar mark. Now the youth of the country, with their policies can help the nation reach the 5 trillion dollar mark.

“The youth of the country, can help the nation reach the 5 trillion dollar mark.”

Susa Young Gates University Prof of Law;
Founding Director, Centre for Law and Religion Studies,

5 trillion dollar economy is not going to be raised if the problems of terrorism and religion related extremism so forth not solved. I want to speak about the problems and challenges and also some solutions. It is the sociological reality that the most terrorist crimes are propagated by males between the age of 15 and 45. In first place, with each passing year a new group enters into this trench, that means there is a problem of educating people. Second thing is that the age group involved is this of yours and so you are in the best shape to do something about this.

Your generation needs to become more experts of finding ways, not overreact, to find ways which are really sensitive. This requires increased education, increased understanding of kinds of problems, engagement in the kinds of things you're doing here and moreover working hard to deal with problems and to find out sensible solutions; not absolute solutions but the solutions which can really make difference. It's the fact that your generation has the capacity, the insight and the creativity to deal with these problems which my generation hopes.

“ Your generation needs to become more experts of finding ways. ”

It is our mission to take India to the 5 trillion economy. Before we talk about this topic I want to propose another topic to you. Our 11th President, the scientist Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam had said- “we have to dream before that dreams come true.” We have all seen the dream to make India the learning centre of the world. The responsibility to making this a reality shall also lie with all the student leaders. It is important for every India to believe and to contribute in creating the 5 trillion dollar economy. We are about to write a new definition of progress and if this new definition entails procuring the aim of 5 trillion dollar economy then we have to integrate traditional economy with futuristic technology. Without knowledge there can be no economic growth. It is important that the youth discusses all such issues.

“ We are about to write a new definition of progress. ”

In Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam's book, Ignited Minds he says that a healthy India and the best India can only be possible if our youth are healthy and the best. Then only our economy will progress. If we want our economy to progress the youth need to come into politics. Karad Sir has given you the platform now you have to utilize this platform. You have to make our parliament so disciplined that Narendra Bhai's dream of attaining the 5 trillion dollar economy by 2025 can be fulfilled. We have faith in you.

Being a student, we have so many responsibilities on our shoulders. Being a student we can participate in our society in so many ways. Try to participate in stopping the corruption at village level .the previous government as well as this NDA government has initiated so many schemes like swachh Bharat mission, Ayushman Bharat. Because of lack of awareness among the common people, so many things are not working out, not functioning properly. You are in the competition with no one you have to run your own race. Don't compare with anyone. Success is today what we are. Don't compare with past. This BCS is big, huge platform. This is an excellent initiative taken by Mr. Rahul Karad. On this platform the students who are interested, can be groomed, can be well trained to become a future politician of this country. We need well educated, well exposed politicians to safeguard our constitution and to save this great Nation.

I have been asked to speak about the chances and the challenges on our 5 trillion economy goal and let me start by saying that I believe in India, I believe that we can achieve what we set out to achieve and I fully believe in setting high goals in the hope that we can achieve them. We are a patient on a table we need to make sure that we get off that table and in order to do it we need all the best doctors to help us get there and we need patience in fact all of us to be resilient to have the energy, to ensure that we can get up from that table. We have to compete with global industry in a way where we provide quality goods at right prize. We have a huge opportunity. I have no doubt that we can reach that 5 trillion number weather by 2024 or soon after depends on you.

I am very happy that I am taking you to a new journey; I was listening to you for a long time and many thanks to all of you too. I feel great that this is the only platform of its kind in the world. There are lots of parliaments in the world and I have been to a few but this is the only students' parliament, the only one all where you all the leaders are here.

We are talking about the 5 trillion economy. What is the power behind this 5 trillion economy? What is such power, that has created 5 trillion economic power? When we are talking about inspiring youth, strengthening democracy, inspiration, how should we empower them? The power that is behind this is the power of the mind, when we empower our mind. We have to strengthen our inner economy to control outer economy.

“ We have to strengthen our inner economy to control outer economy. ”

CONCLUDING REMARKS

Prof. Dr. Nageshwar Rao

Vice Chancellor,
Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU), New Delhi

I feel very glad to see the enthusiasm that the youth have shown on this platform. I can see a path unfolding. Can we attain the five year plan? Everyone has said that the aim may be difficult to achieve, but it is not impossible. You are the future of this country. Whatever aim you have, whether small or large or perhaps no aim at all you can achieve it all only if you have faith and patience. Youth have endless energy. Problems, challenges will keep arising but we should not bother about them. Somebody said- think out of the box. They meant to talk about the discipline that is related to our brain. Recently the Human Resource Department has asked us to think about 25% and we can do it. IGNOU is the world's largest university where 33 lakh students are enrolled and every year it grows by 1 to 5 lakh students. If a world university is bringing people together from all over the world then I am sure we can achieve all our aims.

“ Youth have endless energy. ”

No one had changed the future we have no control on our past, even something we have done or spoken for two minutes back. I cannot withdraw my words and also withdraw my actions .The future is too far from us even something that is to happen two minutes later it's not in my control. When we have big goals in our life they should be practical goals. Yes, we do like to establish some level of brotherhood, some level of harmony, some level of love within the society. And when society fails, nation fails. So total integration is required, only an integrated heart and love the other person. Only then there will be peace in this world. Peace will bring the happiness. Look to your heart. Thank you for being patient and listening and I am grateful to Mr. Karad for inviting me.

OPENING REMARKS

Dr. N. T. Rao

Vice Chancellor,
MIT World Peace University, Pune

I am very standing in front of good young intellectual mind. Good so the India which we have inherited from British was not one India. We had our issues we had our problems priorities of that time very different was hungry India, poor India. So contrast was India that time the world's richest man was living in India then Nizam of Hyderabad.

The most beautiful woman in the world was living in India and at the same time we had that India which did not had access to people there were some villages who did not allow the people from backward classes to enter in their village. Only 12% of the people knew how to read and write. So when India was struggling and India was poor India now has even food to feed the people. So that was the India. We are progressing today you all are living in Much Better India.

“ Today you all are living in Much Better India.”

I am in Sydney at the moment and so unfortunately I am unable to be present in person. However, while I am here I have noticed that though this is a small country, it is a very disciplined and the rules are very strict. Recently, a Chief Minister was suspended because he was accused of having accepted a bottle of liquor and had been found guilty of the charge. Friends, I would like to see the same kind of discipline and strictness in India too. I want to see an India where nobody takes any bribe, where no one betrays the nation, where we all respect our motherland. Can we all look forward to seeing such a nation? To create such a nation we all need to take a pledge, a pledge which can be fulfilled by the youth of the nation. I am sure that a day will arrive when there will not be a single corrupt man in the country.

Do remember my words that one speaker means one thirst. When the thirst is quenched, a speaker does not remain a speaker. The thirst should remain. If someone in the crowd starts to look at his watch then you should get the message that your words have become more expensive than the time that he can afford. No revolution can happen in a day. I commend the strength and vigour of this movement called the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. The day BCS starts to be organized in several big cities, then smaller cities and then districts and then villages as Gram Chhatra Sansad, the entire political world will be at your call. If I talk of population, I would like to give you a simple example. If a lift that can carry only eight people cannot carry 10 people, how can an entire country function when it is burdened with excess load? Think about it.

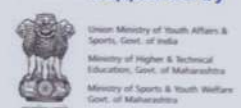

“ No revolution can happen in a day. ”

Many centuries ago the sages of India have said that entire world is our family. Whether it is yours or mine, whether small or big, we have left the small thought and gone ahead and said that the entire world is ours. We follow the principles of Vasudevo Kutumbakham we are raised on these principals.

We have become so selfish that we consider the four enclosed walls as our family. Today India in spite of having all the resources is unable to become the most powerful nation in the world and the only reason to this is rise in the population. We are going ahead in all the sectors right from science to technology but still we are not there in the list of developed country because most of our resources are spend on the population. This I request each and every youth seating in the Vigyan Bhawan, to arise, awake and stop not till the goals are achieved.

“ We consider the four enclosed walls as our family. ”

Krati Jain, Kanpur

What are we heading towards? We often boast of the youngest in the world but do we really have the capacity of having these numbers? I would say a big no as per the world population prospect we are set to become the most populated nation in the world 2050 and the numbers are rising to 1.6 billion.

However we compare this census data we find that beside this increasing birth and decreasing the death rate where the gated causes are involved it is setting up a vicious cycle in our country that is lack of resources leading to our are employment, poverty and hunger and ultimately law and order breakdown. We are here not to procreate but to recreate. Let's bring about the change in our mentality. Much has been said about right, but it's the right time to talk about our national duties.

“ We are here not to procreate but to recreate. ”

Let me share an experience which happens in gynecology ward. A 37 year old lady who is severely malnourished already had four children and an early pregnancy, refuse medical abortion even to save her life. Now if what her children were girls, through my medical schooling I realize this was not an isolated incident. There is no doubt in my mind that 'Hum Do Humare Do' has been a failure. What remains for us to examine is the extent of the failures was it object or only partial. Introduced in 80s this is the textbook for advertisement.

Finally another solution is why not digitally track all parents and children and after the fifth year of immunization of child, counselling. Council the parents for family planning practices. I would just conclude by saying Hum Do Humare Do is a picture of a ray but unfortunately it blends more with the black than it does with the white.

Priya Verma, Chhattisgarh

It is said that the earth's capacity to bear a burden is also limited and if we cross this limit then the result can be fatal, of which we are unaware. If we look at the problems faced by India, you will see that they are all linked to India's large population. This huge population poses an impediment in the country's progress, unemployment being the biggest among them. Unemployment leads to poverty which again becomes a problem for the nation. Nature's resources are getting depleted as we are unable to strike a balance between the supply and the demand. Pollution too has grown from being a coffee table discussion to a life threatening problem. It is still not too late. Be the change you want to see in the world. Instead of blaming everything on the government we have to understand that we have to start at our own individual levels and within our own individual homes.

“ Be the change you want to see in the world. ”

My family name is Pandav and you know the story of Mahabharata. So in life it's not the number of children but quality of the children matters. As we know Hundred Kaurav and five Pandav. Well, ladies and gentlemen, I spend my whole life Indian Institute of medical sciences in New Delhi. I have been a witness of that era when the slogan 'Hum Do, Humare Do' was coined and in fact that family was very close to me today. Women empowerment is the most important thing. While we have given time to express our feelings in democratic environment. This world use principle and policy of carrot and stick. We have been hanging the carrot for too long, now it's time to introduce stick. It's my strong recommendation that, this time to introduce a law that there will be only two children per family.

This Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad is purposefully organized for the future of India. This is like our dream for social development. And that day is not so far where we would see the students of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad working towards national development. I would like to say that our present makes our future. The population of India is 135 crore. How we can make use of this human resources? I think the number of youth at present in India, youth can make the strong economic status of India globally. Govmt. should think about it how to use the minds of youth for the betterment of country. I appeal to everyone sitting here, let's come together, talk to each other, let's lead the path together, let's meet ourselves and Bhartiya Chhatra Sansad is the best platform to allow us to do all this things together.

Friends, the topic for today is population. But I would like to ask you a question. When a mother, irrespective of the number of children that she has, whether they are 5 or 300, cooks for her children, does she think that let them die as I cannot cook for so many children? In a similar manner, how can the earth which we call 'dharti ma' think that let my children die as I cannot feed them. But I do agree that increasing population is becoming a problem for which the government should bring in some strict rules. We keep saying that in 2021, India will be a young nation. Is the government making this our responsibility or is it making us responsible? It is in our own interest that instead of playing politics with the government we should devise solutions along with the government. In the oncoming 10, 20, 50 years we should create a niche for our nation.

It is a real honor for me today to be here with you and indeed a privilege from my agency, the United Nations Population Fund UNFPA to address the new this annual gathering of the Indian student Parliament. Our mission is to ensure that every pregnancy is wanted, every birth is safe, and that every young person's potential is fulfilled. Our goals are very clear. They are to, by 2030, the year of the sustainable developmental goals we would like to see a world achieved zero number of preventable terminal mortality, zero unmet need for Family Planning and zero gender-based violence, which includes harmful practices such as child marriage, gender bias, and female genital mutilation.

At UNFPA, we will save the secret all lies in giving girls and boys equal access to quality education, to quality sexual and reproductive health services. It is a matter of choice and rights. And we agree with India's top leadership when they say 'Save daughter, Teach daughter'.

I would like to say that yes there is no doubt on that there is a population of more than hundred and 25 crores, this number has just grown double in last 40 years that's also is very surprising the growth rate remains which is much more which is alarming density as ever mentioning. It is our responsibility and duty. Irrespective of populations we have to maintain a fine balance between death rate birth rate advancing medical science has taken up the living rate mortality rate has decreased. I would like to give new slogan from this platform. I have registered this slogan. I request government to take this slogan .My slogan is “Chahe nar ho ya nari, santan bus ho do hamari”. It emphasizes that whether it is man or women, irrespective of the caste and creed religion and age.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS

Manish Sisodia

Deputy Chief Minister & Minister for Education,
Government of NCT of Delhi

The topic in this session is "Young India rise to this zero hunger and poverty by 2030?" Is it possible for all of us youngsters to reduce the poverty and hunger by 2030? I want to solve those questions along with you, let's find out the answer of all this questions. When I used to learn in the school at that time it was taught to us that a country is of three types of country developed, developing country and underdeveloped. So I want to say students we should dream of educating the country instead of thinking about doing job in America University taking education in Japan University, we should dream of American student dreaming of taking his higher education in India. Just think over this dream and fulfilling your dream you will never have to think of how to reduce poverty and hunger in India. Think about national development.

“ Dream of an American student dreaming of taking his higher education in India. ”

I want to draw everyone's attention to the fact that in the parliamentary democracy our prime motive should be to eradicate poverty. We also have to understand the limitations of parliamentary democracy. An audit was conducted in 1952 and it was found that whatever achievements we have made till now that is in the health sector, education, technology it has all been possible because of the foresight and vision that the planners had. Our parliamentarians were innovative which has enabled us to become a strong nation. If we compare ourselves to some of the developed nations in the world, you will see that today we are self sufficient. Not only that we are also in a position to export food to other countries. We have to strengthen industrialization too. We will never be able to eradicate poverty. We should support industrialization, privatization and civilization if we want our country to progress.

I think you as a youth leader must understand the fact that democratic establishment is really strong but the thing which is eating it up is hypocrisy. So I think if you get rid of hypocrisy you can do way good to the society. Do believe in yourself, do what you believe and believe what to do. This is really, really powerful statement. I think this is the message for you. Thank you so much and also thank to people of Godda who selected me as a leader. Godda is in Jharkhand and many students are hearing this place's name. So once again thanks.

Dear All, I thank you on behalf of the state of Tripura for inviting me to Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad and also handing me the Award. I just want to say that we have get out of the mentality that we have to work for recognition and appreciation. Whatever work we undertake we should do it from our heart. It is very important to have knowledge of politics especially for those who want to pursue politics as a career and take the country ahead in its goals. Therefore, I congratulate all the student leaders who have come here today to attend the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. I am sure that you will achieve the aims and goals of the country.

It has been 70 years. My country is known as the biggest secular democracy in the world and one that is amongst the strongest and most influential. This is a matter of pride in itself. Our constitution has given us fundamental rights. All educated people know about Article 104. Even those who are not educated say that it is our right, it is our privilege. I also want to talk about the conflict that is going on between our fundamental rights and fundamental responsibilities. The result has been that we have become slow in our progress towards nation building. Rules are made by the assembly, by the parliament. The parliament has the right, whether anybody likes it or not. I believe that the new age India is full of enthusiasm.

“ It is required that every youth contributes in his or her area. ”

Till now I have received 5 National Awards but the happiness that I feel on receiving this award is incomparable. Gandhiji used to say that India resides in the villages. There are almost 2lakh 43 thousand Gram Panchayat's in India. From amongst a population of 130 crores, if 2 lakh 43 thousand youth come forward to take this responsibility then automatically the country will change. Today we claim that India is among the developing nations of the world. If we think of the word politics as service to mankind and the nation, with our conscience then it will not take years but a few days to change the face of the country. It is required that every youth contributes in his or her area. The power and strength of youth is incomparable. I am going with hope in my heart that soon India will emerge to be a developed nation.

First of all I am thankful to respected Rahul Sir, respected Vishwanath sir for giving me this award. Actually I am not feeling that you are giving me this award I feel you are giving me responsibility for further development in my village. Today I got an award for education and I am thankful to my parents who gave me good education and I am thankful to UNICEF volunteers who helped me in my villages for sanitization and Swaccha Bharat. Last year panchayat raj elections were held. For the last 15 years my village was completely neglected. I did not pay one rupee for election and after 1 year I got 2 medals one from CM Rural development award and one from UNICEF and now you are giving this honour. I gave importance to primary education. I raised funds from NGO and also contributed from my own pocket for education. Now my village is completely modernized. Every year we do half and hour swaccha bharat in evry galli, in every college I go to do sanitation work also.

You have raised many questions on zero hunger, zero poverty. I know that when students raise questions then there are lots of hopes that are associated with those questions. When we talk of change it is only the youth that can initiate this change. Gandhiji had said the same and he was the first to call the youth to come forward to initiate change in the country and contribute in nation building. It was the youth of the country that had come forward to free the country and make it independent. When our Prime Minister talks of a new India, he wants it to be hunger free, poverty free and terrorism free. We all have to be united in our fight against hunger and poverty. The world looks towards Japan for electronics goods, Germany for automobiles, Middle East for petrol and towards India for talent.

“ We all have to be united in our fight against hunger and poverty. ”

Päivi Reckman, the Netherlands

Namaste, ending hunger, ending poverty. It's such a beautiful dream, it's so much needed and it's everybody's right. It's fantastic that India made it one but eternity I honored to be here because I have the same dream. I was born and raised in Amsterdam in Netherlands. The who am I? what can I do? Probably you have the same talks. As a child you don't realize how big the problems are. Many people work everyday and still not have enough good food. It is a shock. We cannot watch this reality and sit back. This illusion will not be spontaneously solved. When I was 18 I travelled to India to teach children of primary school. They didn't have a teacher. They were from different ages and also spoke different languages. I was very lucky from the love, support and trust I have received from the Indian people because of which I was able to contribute and strengthen important education system.

“Ending hunger, ending poverty. It's such a beautiful dream.”

Vidhi Subhash Palsapure, Maharashtra

I express my strong affirmation that yes young Indian can rise zero hunger and zero poverty by 2030. Good food and good health are not only important for the growth of an individual but are also equally important for the development of any nation. We are on the way to achieving basic education right in gender equality. Still, roti, kapada and makan remain the most unattainable basic human right in the chunk of our total population. Our country is a home for the world's 25% most hungry and malnourished population. Let my voice through this platform of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad echo in the heart of the young Indian population to pay kind attention to this issue to make efforts to solve this problem and yes cook a very good recipe to make young India zero hunger and zero poverty by 2030.

The disparity is umcomprehensible. You may see a dog sitting in a car shrouded in a silk shawl where a poor man's corpse does not even have a shroud. The country that wants to be the biggest economy in the world, in that country I see so many disparities. On one hand there are sky scrappers and on the on the other there are slums. On one hand I see farmers toiling and laboring to create food and on the other hand I see the same farmers committing suicide due to rising prices of fertilizers and lower market prices for the produce. The question that arises is, who is responsible for this? Is it the politicians or the government or is it you and me? I am looking for solutions and I have come to the conclusion that I will not find it anywhere but in this hall amongst the youth leaders of the country, who are assembled here today.

Rahul Sharma, Dehradun

Before I start my speech I want to take oath taken by swami Vivekananda hello brothers and sisters of great United Republican of India always rise, stop not till the goal is reached and you are the young India. Things which are manmade problems have solutions. So coming to the topic again can we eeradicate problems like poverty and unemployment at 2030. Yes we can. First example is agriculture. Since Independence agriculture took us from zero to winning. We want to go multinational companies and we don't think about nation's agriculture which is the only sector that can take our country to the height. I request to the government of India please come with a program like Technician in Agriculture. There should be more in increase in development of society not on YouTube, Netflix or HotStar. You should come up with development to make this country great.

“Since Independence agriculture took us from zero to winning.”

Trupti Desai

Gender Equality Activist & Founder, Bhumata Brigade

The topic for today's discussion is whether we will be able to get rid of hunger and poverty? If yes, then when? How can we achieve this when there are people who own properties worth more than 1 crore, yet have orange ration cards? There should be a Ram mandir. But when a girl goes to court to ask for justice, then she is set on fire. How can we eradicate poverty undersuch circumstances? I want to tell the government, what good is a Ram Mandir when you cannot protect the Sita who is there in your house? To remove hunger and poverty we have to remove the poverty of our thoughts, first. People who fight elections have to give up on their thoughts that the poor should remain poor and the rich should get richer. If through this platform of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, the youth take up politics then I am 100% sure that we will be able to eradicate hunger and poverty.

“ We have to remove the poverty of our thoughts, first. ”

Our tryst with destiny 73 years ago; we became a young country and there was abject poverty. There was hunger which was heart wrenching. Millions used to die of hunger and it was humiliating for us, for our Prime Ministers then to actually go out in the world and request other countries for food grains. We were dependent on US PL 480, their donations, food grains but that didn't come free. But you are going to change that totally to redefine the very meaning of what it meant to be rich, what it meant to be poor and that change everything. But most importantly I think, you need to become emotionally strong, you need to spend more time with other human beings and you are the demographic dividend of India and I am sure that by 2030, India will not know what is hunger and poverty and that is because of your new value system.

“ But most importantly I think, you need to become emotionally strong. ”

CONCLUDING REMARKS

Dr. S. S. Mantha

Chancellor, K. L. (Deemed to be) University, Vijayawada,
Andhra Pradesh & Former Chairman,
All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE)

Actually this is a very noble goal for every country especially one the side of the globe not the other side is not important it's only I am on this side today, therefore I speak other part of the world. We must end Hunger and zero poverty, every one of our people now achieving food security, improving nutrition, food promoting sustainable agriculture, the sustainable agriculture. Besides all these principles several speakers have also spoken about education- the most important factor in eradicating poverty. We have primary education 97 as our gross enrolment ratio, but when it goes to Secondary Education it drops to 64 and when it goes to higher education it drops to 24.

Now finally it's time to rethink how we can gradually grow and share. If done right agriculture forestry, fisheries can provides nutritious food to all in general. So these kind of sentiments we should see please fight the battle and zero poverty till 2030, and I suppose with your help this country can achieve that.

“ Finally it's time to rethink how we can gradually grow and share. ”

At the onset I want to welcome all those who have come from all across the nation, and are the country's motivation and strength. Shri Rahul Karad, I have been noticing the enthusiasm that you have to make the youth equipped to become the future leaders of the country. I commend the initiative that you have taken. India is a country, where people come to from all over the world to learn about technology. This is a country which has given the world numerous renowned scientists. On the other hand it is also a country which is a young country and is going to remain so for the next 25 years or so. We need vision and foresight to overcome challenges. Our Prime Minister had said that new India will be full of vigour, enthusiasm and will be a clean India. I am sure when you return from Delhi you will go back with the resolve to take the country to greater heights.

“ We need vision and foresight to overcome challenges. ”

What is most important is to have a civilized behavior. When you reach Parliament you should see that there are certain dignity to the Parliament that has to be kept. Unfortunately, we see many times, the speaker has to really yell at the top of his or her voice to bring peace there in the parliament. Now, this may be good in some sense, but in another sense, it doesn't reflect a mature community or a mature civilization. So, it is important for us to have knowledge about our own civilization, the depth of our civilization. Before going to the Parliament we should know about our culture completely. If we are aware of our culture, then we get an inner strength, by knowing our own roots and nurturing our own roots.

If someone counters us, then we have to move forward keeping aside personal ego or personal humiliation. This is a very prominent thing.

“ It is important for us to have knowledge about our own civilization. ”

Avantika Shukla, Maharashtra

At the onset, I would like to extend a warm welcome to all those who are present here today. It is you only who are present here today who have the power to change the destiny and status of the country. It is because of you that this platform exists and with that I also salute this platform called the Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad.

When our soldiers fought against the British to attain freedom for the country they had to pay a heavy price and even after achieving freedom they had no greed for political position, riches etc. They only asked for national awakening. Today three questions need to be answered; Where did India stand earlier? Where does it stand today? And What is its potential for the future? I would like to remind everyone that we have the attributes, we have capabilities and the assets required to create a niche for our country.

“ We have the attributes, we have capabilities and the assets required to create a niche for our country. ”

Pankaj Dhanaji Mane, Maharashtra

I am going to speak on the topic 'India an emerging world order.' Our country had dreamt of becoming a super power in 2020 but unfortunately inspite of having made advances in the financial, societal, political and cultural domains our country could not achieve this aim. But I am sure that in the oncoming 5 years our country will be able to achieve this goal. Very soon there will be someone from amongst the student leaders sitting here today who will be representing India on a global platform and there you will talk about India's achievements and progress. I am reminded of Atal Bihari Vajpayee ji's words "governments will come, governments will go, but the country will remain." I am sure that we will advance to such heights that when we look back and look down from those heights then we can tell the world "copy the pattern to success."

“ You will talk about India's achievements and progress. ”

In the bipolarity system the world seems to be divided into communist and free world.

Some scholars like kinetics watt argue that due to this bipolarity system there has been no World War 3, yet and at the same time some argue that USA is the Supreme Power but gradually few started to oppose both of these and this that started the emergence of a New World order which is multipolarity and yes this is India where it currently belongs to. India has started to explore all this multiple venue of multilateralism and India has become the bridge between south and north. Of course all this increases our GDP but the question is, how could gain of few be justified by loss of many? the youth, the future of this country are the one who should support, accept, initiate this process by joining all hands with our government because divided we fall, united we stand.

“ The youth, the future of this country are the one who should support, accept, initiate this process. ”

I have been an activist as a member of Akhil Bharatiya Vidyapeeth. For a very long time I have worked amongst students. I would like to say that this has always been a country of the young, whether it was Shankacharya, Maharana Pratap, Shivaji, Subhash Chandra Bose, Swami Vivekananda or Sardar Bhagat Singh. They were all young men and such men who contributed in showing the path of progress to India. If we all remember their work and vision and pledge to walk on the path shown by them then no one can stop us from making our country a super power and also vishwa guru. I want to appreciate all the youth who have assembled here today. You have brought forth your thoughts in a concretized manner and it shows your clarity in thought. You now have to reflect the same in your deeds. Let us all pledge to go back from here with solidarity in our thoughts that we will work together for the progress of our nation.

I am grateful to have been given an award at Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad. I want to express my gratitude and thanks. It was undoubtedly a difficult task to walk from Pune to Delhi. Before becoming an MLA I was an athlete and in fact I was the first woman athlete to win gold for India at the Commonwealth games. But the day I entered politics a lot of questions were raised, especially by the youth. I was told that politics is not good. Rahul ji I commend the work that you are doing of providing the youth with this platform. I would like to say that a person's thoughts may be wrong, even his methods may be wrong but our democracy always seeks to strengthen the voice of the people so that they have complete freedom to choose the person they feel can represent them the best.

“ I was told that politics is not good.”

21st century India belongs to you, if India has an ambition to grow as a global power it is not because of any other thing but India is a nation of great potential, youth of this country. India has two kinds of introduction. First introduction is that India is a very ancient Nation. We have history of 5000 years and the second introduction of India is more relevant youth. India the country who is having more youth in it and 60% of India is belong to youth and that too below 35 years of the age group.

It is this India that is the ambitious India, it wants India to be great. Let's become Global leaders. Let's guide the mankind, let's guide the world in our lifetime that should be the dream of every young man of the 21st century. That should be the ambition of every young man in the 21st century.

Zamzam Ibrahim

President, UK National Union of Students (NUS)

Nearly every student union is a member in the US and nearly every student is a member of the union. Together it means that we have millions of students who work every day on the issues that are important to us. That message of building that international work across countries continues. And I am pleased, that UK has restated the post study work visa which allows all incredible graduates from across the globe. It seems increasingly we are living in a world by the new order is what we want where the benefits of working together, of correlation and continuity are altogether disappearing.

Across the globe the population is on the rise with deep ceasing anger on economic systems that are dampened. This is the greatest challenge we are facing in today. A challenge no doubt many of you are aware of and most informed every decision we make for the future generations to come.

“ We are living in a world by the new order. ”

Adv. Hitendra Nath Goswami

Speaker, Assam State Legislative Assembly

I would like to congratulate the Bhartiya Chhatra Sansad for its initiative to hold such a wonderful conclave of students and young leaders come together for nearly last 10 years. Perhaps you are aware that we have a population, young population where below 35 years is 65 percent.

In India all of us should commit ourself to preserve and cherish the democratic values in the country. Therefore a initiative like Bhartiya Chharta Sansad that you have very nicely organized all these years always gives an opportunity not only to the young people but also to the guests and speakers like us to learn and understand many important issues, problems faced by our democracy. A country's reputation is very important and is considered as one of the crucial signifiers of its global status. The internal situation here plays a vital role in determining the external reputation of the country.

You will find so many things which you don't find in books, in the school but in your journey of life. It is a journey from unknown to known area, we do not know many things whatever we know is very little.

Everything is there in Veda. Indian Upanishad we do not read and now what is happening? We want to make our country greater your contribution towards it is very important. It is a big role, Time to given me is very less, I want to talk to you more in future, I will talk to you in detail because I am a student and I love learning with others from your knowledge. Pandit Nehru had said that future is not one of the easy and resting but of insisting, striking so that we might fulfil the pledge we have taken and the one we shall take today the service of India means the service of millions who suffer, it means the ending of the poverty and ignorance and disease and inequality of the opportunity. The 10th president of India KR Narayanan aptly remarked our three ways that is liberalization, privatization and globalization must provide safeguard crossing further and the power so that move towards the equality status. The constitution of India is enormous and a lot has to be done will have to on the responsibility first but every citizen of India may contribute his own in nation building and that is where the lesson of unity and fraternity has thrown particularly you are a student will have to remember this because you are the real instrument of the chain of politics of India.

India is the country who not only knew the geography of their land but they also knew the geography of entire universe since beginning. NASA has said the rotation sound of earth is Omkar. But we the Indians are doing meditation of Omkar since very long time. India is showing spiritual path to entire world and entire world is looking at India as a spiritual guru. India's yoga and Ayurveda's flag is shining all over the world. India is world's biggest democracy.

Indian Ocean is the only ocean which is known due to our countries name. 60 percent of world's trading is done in Indian Ocean. India is shining in Indian Ocean due to its geographical structure. Swami Vivekananda has said long back in 21st century India will become super Guru. So my young friends we have to fulfil the dreams of swamiji.

“India is showing spiritual path to entire world and entire world is looking at India as a spiritual guru.”

M. B. Vishnu, Punjab

It is said that in 1947 when the news of Indian liberty and freedom travelled 5000 km to west hall of London. Winston Churchill holding his cigar in his hand had a smile on his face. Very sarcastically and mockingly said the land which is driven by poverty divided by religion and classes will not sustain more than 20 years after independence.

But seven decades later in the House of Congress a Hindu man places his hand on Bhagwat Gita and rises to the rank of chancellor of exager and his name as Rishi Sunar that tells about the legacy and pride of India has carried about in the last 7 decades. Ladies and gentlemen as I sat down to rewrite about definition about my mother India I turn about lots of pages. We need to make sure that in each and every one of us there runs blood which understands the struggle which India has taken for its independence in 1947.

My dear friends, India is a family though we may be different in languages spoken by us, in the way we look, our caste, creed yet the hearts of all citizens are united. Many people have attacked our country in the past. Many people tried to rule over it. Our soldiers have martyred themselves to protect the nation. It is because of these brave soldiers and also because of the unity of India that we were able to celebrate 15th of August in 1947 and independence dawned on India. This is the very same country where we believe in the words “hail soldiers, hail farmers.” We have also stood against terrorism with utmost fearlessness. This is very same country where we had a woman as the President and has respected every citizen of the country. This is a country that boasts of one of the richest histories in the world. Therefore, to protect all of this our country needs able leadership.

“We have also stood against terrorism with utmost fearlessness.”

Gautam Angira, Uttarakhand

After several centuries of slavery and numerous sacrifices has India got the opportunity to celebrate 15th of August 1947. That was the day when India woke up to independence for the first time. At the same time India also had to face the pain of partition. Though the British left India and went away, the India that they left behind was poor, hungry and corrupt. However, it has been 72 years since this happened. And during this period we also faced World War I. But neither did India stop or bow down before anyone. In fact if anything we have only progressed. Today, India's population stands at 137 crores, 14 Prime Ministers have been elected, figures have changed, times have changed and within this realm of change we have adapted ourselves well. Till date India has suffered innumerable attacks, fought several battles and every time the soldiers of India have been victorious.

“Neither did India stop or bow down before anyone.”

Your Parliament is built on open mind and fresh thinking. Many of you have been asked to represent the gender that you disgriven but that time to do so fairly. This open-mindedness is a sense of successful democracy and your acceptance of differing viewpoints clearly distinguishes this conference. It is my strong belief that this experience should proof crucial as you assume leadership role in the 21st century. As you may know India is a founding member of the United Nation. On June 26 1945 India was among 50 countries to sign the UN and charter. India is currently ranked as the fifth largest troop and police contributing country with 5404 uniform personally. Remarkably India has contributing more space keeper to UN missions than any other country and we are proud to have contributed the world's first female space sniper force who served towards bringing peace to Liberia 2007.

“ This open-mindedness is a sense of successful democracy. ”

I think I am extremely inspired because listening to all of you youth we are 65% of the population, you are the future, we are the future of this country and I think we need to ensure that we speak up every day no matter what is happening. I grew up at an activist and no matter what injustice was happening right from my childhood I would speak up and I request all of you to do that yourself because since 1947 we are living in a free country. Today because of hundreds and thousands of people who have sacrificed their lives and didn't see which caste religion of which region they belonged to they came in to sacrifice for our country for our India.

I request each and every one of you to read the Preamble of the Constitution every day because this is the basis on which our country was made and ensure that each and every citizen is beong speaking up for.

I come from rural constituency name Parchuroo from Prakashan District of Andhra Pradesh, where 80% of the people depend upon agriculture. Their main livelihood is agriculture. Being Post Graduate in Horticulture and from a middle class family I know the problem so that, as a member of Legislative Constituency of that assembly I worked for farmer issue, woman empowerment and youth issues, developing infrastructure in rural areas health and education. It is a privilege to get this award from very prestigious institutions and future leaders of India along with you.

I am a woman and changer is one idea where India did a lot of progress but also one where it needs to make much more. I am also the group editorial director of one of the country's oldest and most respected media business, is one in the mix of transition not just in terms of business models but also technology and because of the surfeit of the fake news, there is a trust deficit and credibility associated with this space. At the time of independence only 6% of India's women were educated, now the figure is close to 60% in rural areas and 73% in cities, back then women used to have their first child at the age of 14 this has increased to 21 years now, from health to Maternity Benefit from protection to sexual harassment government through this 70 years has passed laws to help women cycles of the patriarchy. 70 years ago India adopted a document that pretty much serves as a mission statement of every Indian men, women & child even company, the constitution and that will never change.

This is a fantastic effort to bring political aptitude to the students, I think this is a very positive and significant step in the growth and evolution of Indian quality that people are trained as to how to be in politics. As we know in many ways Ppolitics has taken a back flip here and there as all sorts of people who have no understanding of constitutional dimensions in the parliamentary behaviors. Now it is the 73rd year of independence, it's time that our politics is also qualified and trained. I think this is a very significant step and very vital for the country's forward movement. This evolution of well-trained, sophisticated people getting into political life is an important step for India. This is very essential for the development and building this nation into a great possibility. This is a very positive step.

After having 58 years in the legal profession, I think I will speak something which will need some introduction, introspection by all of you. Yes, josh is very important, so is the new Soch and Vichar, but one has to learn from our past experiences that we have had. Our constitution says that we have to provide justice for our citizens. Justice in all forms whether it is political, social, and economical and all that now my question to you is are the citizens of India getting justice? My answer is 'no'. Yes we have we law but we do not have justice. There is a distinction between the law and Justice. The solution is what culture and what our history provided settlement of dispute through mediation. Mediation is the answer. Young students should be trained to be good mediators of disputes.

Samradni Taware, Maharashtra

We all say leaders are born and I would say this is the place which gives birth to all the leaders of the country of India. BCS has not only taught me to be a responsible citizen but also given birth to a leader in me. I would say, earlier we were an individual but being on the platform of BCS, we all have become an active citizens of the country and trying to respect our Tiranga even more. Also I would like to appeal to all the participants and the student leaders here that BCS is like a family. Through this platform we can build a country and take it to the highest stages in the world. Before leaving this stage, I would like to say,

“ BCS has not only taught me to be a responsible citizen but also given birth to a leader in me. ”

Vyanktesh, Karnataka

BCS is a family. It's a platform where different student leaders with different ideologies, different perspectives come together but with only one intention that is of serving humankind. It gives you a platform to be a voice of the unheard. Similarly it has helped me to reach United Nations in Indonesia where I got opportunity to represent India. It is just through BCS. One thing BCS has clearly taught me is that we can work not only by raising voice and giving slogans but also we can work by maintaining dignity and grace.

“ BCS gives you a platform to be a voice of the unheard. ”

SHARING OF VIEWS ON BHARATIYA CHHATRA SANSAD (1 TO 10)

Viraj Kawadia, Maharashtra

I have been associated with Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad since its inception in 2011 and I have remained associated with it for the past 10 years. I got the opportunity to learn a lot. When I came here first in 2011, it was an engineering institution. Last year I got an opportunity to stand for elections for Jalgaon Municipal Corporation, representing the Shiv Sena. It is not easy to get a ticket from the Shiv Sena. A lot happened in the last 10 years. During this period I even received the youth award from the Maharashtra Government. I received support from Shri Rahul Karad, Apte Sir. The strength of this platform is such that today we have a judge amongst us, who attended the first BCS when he was a student of law. He is working in some area and has taken leave to come and attend BCS. You can see the effects yourself. So also imagine how much of an impact it must be creating on policy making.

“Imagine how much of an impact BCS must be creating on policy making!”

Navjot Kaur, Punjab

Years ago I worked in as a non challenged teenager in a conclave of BCS and years after I worked out as responsible citizen. I walked in and I understood my responsibility. My journey from being a student participant just like you to becoming a speaker and right now sharing my experience has been a form of rebirth. BCS has been my birth place and now it is my workplace also. And it is the same for all of you. BCS taught me two important things: that is the power of words; it has made me believe in power of words and action. The second thing which I have learnt is to be a youthful responsible citizen. I would like to put it in African proverb which means that young may walk faster but the elder knows the path. So we along with the dignitaries have to run this country and change the face of politics and the administration.

“BCS has been my birth place and now it is my workplace also.”

Dr. Sudhanshu Trivedi

Member of Parliament, Rajya Sabha (BJP, Uttar Pradesh)
& National Spokesperson, BJP

After seven decades if you look at the entire map of the world called the biggest democracy but it is not just the only fact. Starting from Eastern Europe, Central Asia, Middle East, Africa, and Far East how many countries have sustainable democracy? Only India, Japan and Australia in the entire Eastern hemisphere have consistent sustainable and strong democracy. What is the limit of Unity? We always hear about diversity but we never guide for the unity. City has gone to the extent of divinity on the issue of caste religion language region. Where is the connection? Which is the point which connects us? When you sit for worshipping God and put some water in your hand, at the time the Pandit Ji takes the names of the all rivers of India. This is the connection between All Indians. We are connected with all the rivers emotionally. And the future is India having signature on the god particle means we are the only country which can provide the way for God and particle both.

“We always hear about diversity but we never guide for the unity.”

Justice (Retd.) N. Santosh Hegde

Former Lokayukta (ombudsman),

Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (BCS)

I worked in many positions but until I came to the Institution of Karnataka Lokayukta, I was feeling that I was a frog in the well. That institution exposed me to what's really happening in the society. I saw the sufferings of the people that too from the hands of the institution mostly called as the government. I also know the fact that democracy cannot be there without politics. Politics is an absolute necessity in democracy. I want you all to join politics when you come out but with a difference. It's my thinking that even though you are not born as human being, in the journey of your life if you acquire Humanism, exhibit to the society and die as a human being, there is no better glory. Inculcate these two values, change the society, build the society, which will think of India and India only and not about yourself and that India will provide a look after you.

This is the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad and I congratulate all the student leaders who have come from various parts of the nation. I also welcome the youth who have come to be a part of this conclave. The previous speaker very rightly said that since the 72 years of independence phenomenal changes have taken place in the nation. I salute the martyrs who have sacrificed their lives for India's freedom. Having fought 2 wars, having fought various internal and external adversities our country has still emerged to procure a place for itself on the world stage. After 70 years our country has fortified itself against a lot of adversities. Whether it is a world issue or a health issue, or information revolution, India has emerged to be at the helm of things. It is our responsibility to ensure that the country reaches the 5 trillion economy mark.

“ I salute the martyrs who have sacrificed their lives for India's freedom. ”

Dr. Mohit Gambhir

India has completed 70 years since its independence, and I have also seen almost 40 of those years. There is a small area which I want to emphasize upon. When the partition happened, even my family was amongst those who were displaced. I have completed a PhD in Engineering and stand before you today. I want to thank those who have helped us create our future. It is only what we think is what we are able to create. I am a small drop in the ocean but when I become a part of the ocean, I help many to fare across. India is one of the oldest civilizations on the earth and has the largest population of youth and our time has come. Friends, it is India's time now. Many people have the same question. What do we need to do in the future? I would like to tell them, preserve your culture and your heritage so that your future is bright.

CONCLUDING REMARKS

Dr. Sandeep Sancheti

Vice Chancellor, SRM Institute of Science and Technology (SRMIST), Tamil Nadu &
Former President, Association of Indian Universities (AIU)

Before I put forth my thoughts, I want to thank Shri. Rahul Karad who has given me the opportunity to learn, to know, to understand and the opportunity still remains. I would only like to say that from amongst the last seven decades we can understand the happenings of a few decades and know what we have got. If we understand that then we can move forward and also know what we need to do in the future. In the first decade after independence we learnt a lot about discipline and governance, and at the political level our nation was thinking about unity in diversity. In the second decade institutional progress was happening. Now, I think that the upcoming decade will be dedicated to bringing up the standards of sports in India. Also, as I am a technologist I am hopeful that India will be a major contributor in the technological sector. It is up to the youth to bring stability and reliability to the ongoing progress.

“ I am hopeful that India will be a major contributor in the technological sector. ”

CONCLUDING REMARKS

Dr. Aditya Shastri

Vice Chancellor, Banasthali Vidyapith,
Vanasthali, Rajasthan

In the past 7 years, as Sanchet ji also mentioned, the progress of the nation has been very satisfying. The IITs, IIMs, and our space program and nuclear program have helped us emerge as a super power in the world. This is a matter of great pride for us. Two things that have not been mentioned till now; green revolution happened which was an unparalleled thing and also the white revolution. Post independence we were a nation of 30 to 35 crore people when we used to import food products. Today when our population is 120 crores and we are completely self sufficient and not only that on many an occasion we also export food. The same revolution has happened for white revolution or the milk revolution. Our Prime Minister says that in the oncoming years we have to make India the Vishwa Guru. I am sure that in the oncoming years India will surely prove itself to be the Vishwa Guru.

“The progress of the nation has been very satisfying.”

Today, I was Happy to Witness this Grand Function of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad, I wish to Congratulate Dr. Vishwanath Karad and Rahul Karad for organizing this kind of event to Motivate and Create Young Leaders for new India. What i witnessed today was a historical event actually, in front me hundreds of Young Leaders were sitting and on the stage many many Luminaries were guiding them, and the kind of interaction that i saw, i am sure it will play a major role in Transforming new India and truly making advantage of the democratic dividend that always we talk about. Only Youngsters can change this India now, and India is the youngest country. I think that the MIT Initiative of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad will get long way. I could see actually, in front of me and on the stage sideline sitting the representatives and students of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad among them there were many leaders

Secretary General, Inter-Parliamentary Union

Although we may be physically thousands of miles apart, we stand shoulder to shoulder in our common pursuit to end youth participation in our democracies. The inter-parliamentary union or IQ is the global organization of parliaments; we represent 179 national parliaments including that of India. I am proud to say that youth participation is one of our organization's strategies. The world is more interconnected than ever before the most pressing issues we face such as Climate change in equality and peace and security on the globe.

National Mission forms will of course always be important. As we look towards the future, the stakes for Global responses and action will only continue to grow. Our national institutions must continuously adapt too and harness these changing realities. Young people were wrong and rose in this increasingly interconnected or I really suited to this rejuvenation.

It is also great to see organizations like the MIT University working to strengthen democracy through a forum like this one. As you know the CPA is a voice of parliamentary democracy across the Commonwealth and has been for over a century since its establishment in 1911, promoting a parliamentary development and up skilling members of parliament. It brings together 70000 or over parliamentarians from 180 legislatures across the Commonwealth. As the largest democracy in the world, India which is one of the fastest growing economies in world, today it is home to a seventh of the world's youth. Half of which population is under 25 and a quota is below the below the age of 14. India's young population is its most valuable asset, the young people as a future of the Commonwealth. As such India has a long recognized the importance of young people to the future of Commonwealth society.

It is interesting to note that in the European Union we have, over the last few months, had citizens consultations and we are planning a conference on the future of Europe with massive interventions of citizens and particularly, young people across our continent. The spirit behind this initiative seems to me to be close to the one that inspired the BharatiyaChhatraSansad which certainly holds interesting lessons for us in Europe. It documents the vibrant stage of the Indian democracy and the will to harness the energy and dynamism of its young people, to shaping your own future.

This is the way to make your dreams come true. This is the spirit that inspired the European politicians after World War II to overcome age old divisions, conflicts and even hatred. India is developing fast and can and will be a major player on the global stage. You would take part in the conference over the next four days.

I must tell you my students leaders that some of the administrators here they shared in the last 4 days continuous engagement, the kind of beautiful engagement of all of you here from the first day to last day. I think in the history it has never happened in such a unique way, so I think it is a very important event for my student leaders. When we started this concept of School of Government, Political Leadership School people laughed on us, Pranab Mukharjee Sahab, how can there is a School which can educate the youngster to get in to public life and they said that in this country you require muscle power, money power and various other ideas. Today I have contentment and the satisfaction my dear students that last in the 15 years in this country, this this MIT School of Government and Bhartiya Chatra Sansad has played a very important role. Imagine such a political way if all the MLA's and cooperators and district level members and all of you various such platform we can create, truly we can create our unique model of democracy in front of the world that is my belief. In 1983, 104 Presidents and Prime Ministers had come to this conference hall which half of its present size. I told Shrimati Indira Gandhi ji that this would not suffice and she asked me what I wanted. To which I responded that a new hall would have to be built. Therefore, in 1983 this conference hall where all of you are sitting right now was built. Many of you have been to Pune and those of you who have not been to Pune, must visit Pune because the Karad family has done a wonderful job. All of you want to become politicians. Many political fighters are also sitting here and I am one of them. All of you must understand this that once you enter politics, it is a 24 hour job. It is not a regular run of the mill job where you go in the morning and come back in the evening.

I congratulate the organizers of Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad that they have completed this milestone journey of 10 years. You all claim that you will be the builders of new age India. But I want to say something to you. Before you say that you want to build the nation I want you all to bring yourself up to the level wherefrom you can contribute in nation building. It is not easy to build a nation. It is like penance, you have to strengthen your body. You will come across many challenges but you have to believe in your inner strength. You have to believe in your nation, your God and without any doubt we will be able to construct a new age India.

Good governance is not given in any system it has to be nurtured carefully. It calls a wider involvement of the Civil Society. Open participation in political process. It also cause for ethical and responsible behaviour from all stakeholders including the mass media. Chhatra Sansad in its decade long distance has become an important aspect of evolving educational landscape. I have been told there are alumni and it is spread length and the breadth across the country and have successfully captured the imagination of our spiritual views while enriching our body politics with fresh ideas towards strengthening the democracy. We have entered in the 71st year of a Republic. Democracy and republicanism are the true values which we must not only strive to protect but also cherish, celebrate and treasure. Democracy is the rule of law for and by the people and Republic signifies the rule of law. We are the nation of 12, 69,219 square miles. Having 7 major religions speaking 1200 languages, which is a great Magna Carta of socio economic reforms. Our founding fathers who drafted our constitution and wanted India's giant live in democracy and get truly in gain. I am sure you will also represent youth parliament Sansad and work relentlessly in achieving India of Gandhi's dreams. I wish you all success in future endeavours.

“Chhatra Sansad in its decade long distance has become an important aspect of evolving educational landscape.”

SPECIAL SESSION

YOUTH TO YOUTH CONNECT

DAY 1, 2 & 3
THURSDAY, FRIDAY & SATURDAY,
20th, 21st, 22nd FEBRUARY 2020
1800 hrs to 1930 hrs

‘Youth to Youth Connect’ is a year-long student engagement activity to in still a sense of community ownership through meaningful live projects.

Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (BCS) respects its participants’ urge to contribute in the process of Nation Building. Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad (BCS) also recognizes the fervor and commitment of Young Student Leaders to undertake action projects to help them to evolve as a leader. As an answer to this great purpose, “BCS Youth to Youth Connect” was introduced.

Students who are interested in similar action area for development of our nation come together under the banner of “BCS Youth to Youth Connect” and develop an action plan for one year. Subsequently they will implement the action plan in their city, region or state. To participate in this movement of Nation Building, one needs to register at BCS ‘Youth to Youth Connect Registration Counter’.

Various projects that are considered for this year 2020 are given below:

Topic 1:	Hunger free India: United we act: The student leaders feel that no child no person should remain undernourished, there should be proper distribution system, storage system for food grains, use of technology for storage and distribution, necessity of food security guarantee act, etc
Topic 2:	Understanding Kaahmir: Way forward: The opinion of students is in favour of the recent decision taken by Government about Kashmir and efforts to bring in economic prosperity there by various means.
Topic 3:	Women's safety and empowerment: Student participants feel that there should be stricter laws for crimes against women. The youths are against the bad practices like dowry and believe in equality.
Topic 4:	Be the citizen: Save nature: Student leaders are more concerned about single use plastic. Students feel that more awareness is required to reduce use of plastic may be by taking help of some NGOs, need to encourage students for planting more trees, campaign for using non-conventional/green energy, etc.
Topic 5:	Casteless India: Realizing the dream: The youth of today feels that casteism should slowly vanish to make "Ek Bharat, Shreshta Bharat" and suggest some solutions like no mention of caste in the curriculum of primary education, promoting Inter-caste marriages, no discrimination at any places, Group meals, reservation based on economic background, etc
Topic 6:	Youth participation in politics: Way ahead: Participants opined that more youths should participate in active politics as they can play important role in dealing with the problems like corruption, casteism, poverty, gender equality, terrorism, etc.

Must adopt Gandhian ideal of creating nation: Pranab

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: Indian democracy has over decades displayed an inherent strength to accommodate varied groups into the mainstream, former President Pranab Mukherjee said on Sunday as he emphasised the need to pursue the Gandhian ideal of creating a nation where the weakest get the same opportunity as the strong.

Addressing over 2,000 students from across the country at the 10th Bharatiya Chhatra Sansad organised by the MIT School of Government at Vigyan Bhawan, Mukherjee said democracy and

Naidu urges youngsters to take part in nation building

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: Vice President M Venkaiah Naidu on Thursday urged the younger people to ban nationalism, join forces of growth, take an active interest in the country's politics and participate in the nation-building activities.

Speaking at the 10th edition of the Indian Student Parliament organised by the MIT School of Government, Naidu called politics a vehicle for serving the people. He added it brings about the desired socio-economic change and takes the country to new levels of development besides strengthening the foundations of

सौहार्द को नुकसान पहुंचाने की कोशिश: नकवी

पार्थिव सभाकार सेना। नई दिल्ली

शाहीन बाग मामला

● हमारा संवैधानिक

ढाँचा अनेकता में एकता की देता है गारंटी

संविधान नागरिकता कानून (सीएए) के खिलाफ शाहीन बाग में जारी विरोध प्रदर्शन को लेकर केंद्रीय अल्पसंख्यक कार्य मंत्री मुख्तार अब्बास नकवी ने शनिवार को कहा कि कुछ लोग धर्म फैलाकर देश के सौहार्द, धर्मनिरपेक्षता और संविधान के ताने-बाने को नुकसान पहुंचाने की कोशिश कर रहे हैं।

भारतीय छात्र संसद के 10वें वार्षिक राष्ट्रीय सम्मेलन को सम्बोधित करते हुए नकवी ने कहा, हमारे संविधान में जहाँ संसद, विधानमंडल की शक्ति एवं विरोधाभास को अनुच्छेद 105 स्पष्ट करते हैं, वहीं इससे पहले अनुच्छेद 51 ए मूल कर्तव्यों का उल्लेख करते हैं। भारतीय संविधान ने मूल कर्तव्यों के प्रति भी जिम्मेदारी तय की है। नकवी ने कहा, जिस तरह से मौलिक अधिकारों के सम्बन्ध में हम

जागरूक रहते हैं उसी तरह से मूल कर्तव्यों के प्रति भी हमें जिम्मेदारी सम्पन्न होनी चाहिए। केंद्रीय मंत्री ने कहा कि नागरिकों के मौलिक अधिकार, मौलिक कर्तव्यों के निर्वाह पर आधारित हैं। नागरिकों द्वारा राष्ट्र के प्रति कर्तव्यों को गंभीरता से लेने की आवश्यकता है।

नकवी ने कहा कि जीवन, सम्मानता और अधिष्ठाता को स्वतंत्रता से संबंधित मौलिक अधिकारों को बनाए रखना अत्यंत आवश्यक है और जन प्रतिनिधियों सहित नागरिकों को राष्ट्र के प्रति अपने कर्तव्यों को गंभीरता से लेने की जरूरत है। हिंदुस्तान धर्मनिरपेक्ष लोकतांत्रिक देश है और वह बहुसंख्यकों के संस्कार-सौच के संकल्प का तरीका है एवं अनेकता में एकता की मायबूझ ताने-बाने का प्रमाण है। उन्होंने कहा कि कुछ लोग धर्म फैलाकर देश के सौहार्द, धर्मनिरपेक्षता और संविधान के ताने-बाने को नुकसान पहुंचाने की कोशिश कर रहे हैं और विपरायत को ये सब समझने को साजिश में तरो हैं। नकवी ने कहा कि हमारा संवैधानिक संघीय ढांचा सामाजिक सौहार्द और 'अनेकता में एकता' की गारंटी है।

Forcing opinion via disruption akin to terrorism: Kerala gov

HT Correspondent

NEWDELHI: In an obvious reference to the Shaheen Bagh protesters in Delhi, Kerala governor Arif Mohammad Khan on Friday said forcing an opinion on others by disrupting normal life was also a form of terrorism. "Aggression does not come in the form of violence only. It comes in many forms," Khan said at the ongoing 10th edition of the Indian Student Parliament organised by the MIT School of Government in New Delhi.

PUNE: The 10th edition of Bhartiya Chhatra Sansad (BCS), organised by MIT World Peace University's (MIT WPU) School of Government (SOG), will be held at Vigyan Bhawan in New Delhi from February 20 to 23. The event has been supported by the United Nations, South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC) and Inter-Parliamentary Union and Commonwealth.

Vice President Venkaiah Naidu will inaugurate the event. Former president of India Pranab Mukherjee, former chief minister (CM) of Maharashtra Devendra Fadnis, Kerala Governor Arif Mohammad Khan, Punjab's Chief Minister Captain Amarinder Singh, senior journalist Rajdeep Sardesai are some of the designated personalities who will attend the event.

Executive President Rahul Karad initiated this event in the year 2011. The purpose to hold the conference is to provide a platform for students to discuss various social issues ranging from polity, poverty, national security, caste and economy.

About 2,100 students from various states of India have registered for the event.

राज्य में जल्द खोली जाएगी साइबर यूनिवर्सिटी: सामंत

बुलरो | नई दिल्ली

महाराष्ट्र के राज्य व तकनीकी शिक्षा मंत्री उदय सामंत ने कहा कि बड़ो साइबर क्राइम की घटनाओं को रोकथाम के लिए राज्य में जल्द ही साइबर यूनिवर्सिटी के अलावा खेल यूनिवर्सिटी खोली जाएगी। मंत्री सामंत ने कहा कि आतंकवादी बेहद अत्याधुनिक तकनीक की मदद से आतंकवादी घटनाओं को अंजाम दे सकते हैं। इस बात को ध्यान में लेते हुए इसके परिणामों का हमारे युवा सामना कर सके। इसलिए सरकार प्रदेश में साइबर विश्वविद्यालय खोलने की तैयारी में है। मंत्री साइबर ने पुणे स्थित एसआईटी वर्ल्ड पीस यूनिवर्सिटी, एसआईटी स्कूल ऑफ गवर्नेट व भारतीय छात्र संसद फाउंडेशन द्वारा संयुक्त रूप से विज्ञान भवन में आयोजित भारतीय छात्र संसद में अपने संबोधन के दौरान यह जानकारी दी। वे छात्र संसद में विद्वान, आतंकवाद व नक्सलवाद से संघर्ष-कारण और चुनौतियों विषय पर बोल रहे थे।

Youth should join politics with an aim to cleanse it and serve society: Gadkari

Union Minister Nitin Gadkari (second from left) along with others engaged the 'Youth of democracy' to mark the inauguration of the student body at MIT on Saturday.

Change in the way politics is done is not enough. Politics is a field of differentiation but we should accept those challenges and opportunities in the field of running away from responsibility and then, political parties will have to change their functioning. The change in the functioning of politics has to be in every field. Youth should discharge their personal responsibility and then, political parties will have to change their functioning. 10 YEARS OF INSPIRING YOUTH, STRENGTHENING DEMOCRACY

ABOUT MIT SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT

“Not all politicians are corrupt. There are more number of clean politicians. The youth should enter mainstream politics to serve the nation.”

- Rahul V. Karad

- First of its kind institute in India & Asia for a career in Politics
- 14 years, 350+ alumni in public life
- Two-year Post Graduate degree program in Political Leadership & Government
- Teaching about various aspects of “Government” and “Governance”
- First year on-campus learning and second-year off-campus training

The School of Government was initiated in 2005, a time when politics was not considered to be a good career option. We strongly believe that the educated youth with professional training can make an impact at the societal level by joining politics. Today after engagement of youth in various movements and political issues of the country, we at MIT-SOG have been proven right.

Bringing youth representation in the mainstream of political & social democracy and to impart practical leadership training to prepare them for the future leadership, was the commitment behind establishing this unique school in 2005, known as MAEER's MIT School of Government (now MIT-WPU School of Government, MITSOG). Apart from Electoral politics it provides attractive roles in functional politics, as Political Analyst, Political Strategist, Campaign Manager, Election Consultant, Constituency Manager, Policy & Research Associate, PRO, Social media analyst etc.

This being our 15th year of operation, we are glad to share that we have trained hundreds of youth and are proud to see many of our alumni, holding important positions in public life. We rededicate ourselves to the cause of building a strong political leadership, across levels and political parties. When we at MIT-SOG grow from strength to strength, we know that our political system too benefits, by getting an excellent pool of talent. We wish to strengthen our contribution to our country, in this unique and value adding fashion each moment.

Vishwanath D. Karad and Rahul V. Karad, the moving force and initiators of MIT School of Government, the first school in India & Asia for a career in politics.

ABOUT WORLD PEACE CENTRE (ALANDI)

Prof. Dr. Vishwanath D. Karad, is the Founder President of the World Peace Centre. WPC was established on 1st December, 1996 as a nongovernmental, voluntary and non-profit organization. In the year 1998, WPC was awarded the UNESCO Chair for Human Rights, Democracy, Tolerance and Peace, in recognition of its outstanding work in the area of establishing Culture of Peace in the world. This is the first such Chair in Asia and only the second in the Asia-Pacific region.

To give shape to his vision, Prof. Dr. Vishwanath D. Karad, has initiated several national and international level conferences and seminars that carry out humanitarian activities, and provide encouragement to physical fitness and sports activities. He facilitates many other programs that foster universal brotherhood and inter-religious and inter-faith dialogue.

Under the aegis of WPC activities like the First Parliament of Science, Religion and Philosophy was organized in 1996. There are several annual events too such as the Saint Shree Dnyaneshwara and Saint Shree Tukaram Endowment Lecture Series. Projects such as the Environmental Improvement and Pollution Control Project at Alandi and Dehu are aimed at bettering the environment. Transforming Pilgrim Centres into Divine Knowledge Centres, and establishment of Vishwa Shanti Sangh, a citizens' organization involve people wishing to work for establishing culture of peace. Further organizing the National Conferences on Communal Harmony and constitution of Philosopher Saint Shri Dnyaneshwara World Peace prize on the lines of Nobel Peace Prize emphasize WPC's commitment towards establishing the culture of peace.

ABOUT PHILOSOPHER SAINT SHREE DNYANESHWARA WORLD PEACE LIBRARY & WORLD PEACE PRAYER HALL

The brainchild of Prof. Dr. Vishwanath D. Karad, the Philosopher Saint Shree Dnyaneshwara World Peace Library & World Peace Prayer Hall is an epitome of architectural magnificence and is a contribution towards the knowledge divine. Conceptualized, designed, planned and accomplished under the headship of Prof. Dr. Vishwanath D. Karad, the monument is sure to make a lasting impression on the world landscape and become a global marvel.

Presently, known to be the largest dome in the world, the remarkable monument has a diameter of 160 feet. With only 24 pillars as the foundation, the structure can accommodate more than 3000 people at any given time.

The dome houses a library that expands across an area of 62500 feet, with a prayer hall above it with 54 statues of revered scholars, saints, scientists, philosophers and gurus.

The superlative monument envisioned by Prof. Dr. Vishwanath D. Karad conveys to the world the message of peace, divinity and integrity and depicts the vedic principle of 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' (The world is one family).
